BOOSTING MARIN

Thirty-nine Marinites got off in a mad scramble amid a rainstorm today on the Marin Visitors Bureau's two-week trip to Hawaii. The group left Redwood Travel Advisors in San Rafael by bus and boarded a plane at San Francisco Airport. In Hawaii, they'll be guests of the Hawaii Visitor's Bureau and learn how the "magical isles" are boosted—at the same time doing some boosting for Marin as a place for Hawaiians to visit on their vacations. Mrs. Hiida Galbraith of Fairfax, the tour leader, is busily writing with her brief case as a writing pad as the throng starts for the bus. The hurried departure prevented identification of all in the picture.

Black Muslim's Death Ruled Accidental

In a tensely packed courtroom, a coroner's jury last night found that San Quentin inmate Booker T. Johnson, 27, met his death through accident and misfortune.

What began as a routine inquest at 7:30 p.m. in the court of Judge N. Charles Brusatori, with Coroner Frank J. Keaton presiding, suddenly tightened into a racial drama as almost 100 members of the Black Muslim sect filed into the room, and silently watched.

They were headed by their West Coast leader, John X. Shabazz, minister of Mosque 27 in Los Angeles, who said they were there to "observe."

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos, taking no chances, had 22 deputies on duty in the courthouse, but there was no disorder.

Following the verdict, Shabazz made this statement to an Independent-Journal reporter:

"We didn't expect them to say it was murder. In White America there is no such thing as murder for a Negro, because in order to murder you must be dealing with a human being—and since according to the Constitution of the United States, and according to the 400 years treatment my people have received, we have never been treated as human beings, we did not expect you to set a precedent here tonight."

The 14-man, one-woman jury heard a parade of 13 witnesses describe from different viewpoints how Johnson was shot by correctional officer Frank L. Bortfeld on the morning of Feb. 25.

Bortfeld, who had never fired a shot except in target practice in almost 15 years as a correctional officer, said he aimed a warning shot at a concrete buttress when fights began among the 27 men in the prison's adjustment center yard.

"It was very tense," he testified in a low voice. "I told the inmates not to move—to stay where they were. A group of colored inmates ran toward a group of white inmates." There were three unarmed officers in the yard among the men, he said.

"At this point, we had what we consider a full-scale riot. They yelled 'Shoot!,' and I fired between the two groups of men."

Dist. Atty. Roger P. Garety asked him, "Did you know that Johnson was in the line of fire?"

Russ Troop Pullout In Cuba Not Fast Enough For JFK

WASHINGTON (AP)—President John F. Kennedy said today that "no" he is not satisfied with the rate of withdrawal of Soviet troops from Cuba.

Kennedy also left open a question of whether four American fliers killed in the 1961 Bay of Pigs invasion of Cuba were employed by the U.S. government or its Central Intelligence Agency. He said "the men were serving their country" but dodged a direct reply on grounds it would not be helpful to the national interest to go into details.

And Kennedy rejected any application of a blockade to shut off supply of oil to Cuba. He said there would be no mistaking that a blockade is an act of war, and added:

"At this time, we do not believe war in the Caribbean is to the national advantage."

On a key domestic matter—taxes—the president said that it is his judgment that Congress will put through a bill which will lower taxes and also provide for what he calls tax reforms. That, he said, is what he wants.

But at a presidential news conffer-ence, more questions focused around Cuba than any other topic.

With respect to the Soviet troops aspect of the troubled Cuban situation, a three part question was fired at the president. He was asked (1) Whether he has information on how many Soviet troops have been removed from Cuba, (2) Whether he is satisfied with the rate of withdrawal and (3) Whether the Russian promise to pull out troops permitted verification. Replying to all three parts together, Kennedy said:

"The answer would be, really. No."

Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara estimated Jan. 30 that there were 17,000 Russian troops in Cuba.

Subsequently, Russia promised to take a substantial number of her troops from the Carribbean island by mid-March. But informed sources say the withdrawals are going along slowly.

General Says Cuban Caves Hide Supplies

WASHINGTON (AP) — Maj. Gen. Alva R. Fitch, top Army intelligence officer, told senators today that thousands of caves in Cuba probably are being used to store Soviet stocks of ammunition, supplies, vehicles and even aircraft.

There have been constant reports by Cuban refugees that some strategic missiles may be hidden in these caves.

"It is our belief that the Soviets did, in fact, remove all strategic weapons systems that were in Cuba at the time the quarantine was imposed," Fitch said.

Fitch referred to the Oct. 22 order by President John F. Kennedy after which the Soviet Union was reported to have removed some 42 medium-range ballistic missiles and 42 bombers from Cuba.

Sausalito Councilman Ehrlich Is Resigning

Philip S. Ehrlich Jr., city councilman in Sausalito for five years, last night announced his resignation effective March 29.

Ehrlich gave as his reason the fact he must travel a great deal in his position as director of the legal department of Crown Zellerbach Corp. in San Francisco.

"I take this step with reluctance, but do so because matters with which I am now involved will require a great amount of travel over the next year," said Ehrlich. "And as you know, this has been my pattern for some time now. These trips have made it increasingly difficult for me to meet my commitments as a councilman."

Ehrlich filled the unexpired term of Neils Skov and was elected to the seat in 1960. His present term is up in 1964. During his time on the council he was mayor two years.

In January of last year, insurance broker Russell S. Reagan started proceedings to recall Ehrlich and Councilman Michael Harris, charging "misuse of office.' Reagan later withdrew the recall notice.

Ehrlich served two years on the Sausalito Planning Commission before joining the council.

The council must appoint Ehrlich's successor within 30 days after his resignation is effective on April 28, or hold an election to fill the office.

Children To Plant Redwoods

Nearly 2,000 Marin school children will plant seedling Redwood trees throughout the county next week.

The big tree planting will be observance of Conservation Week, which begins tomorrow, Arbor Day, the birthday of Luther Burbank, and ends March 14.

TREES DONATED

The trees, Sequoia Gigantea seedling four to 12 inches high, will be donated by a St. Helena tree farm operator.

Burke H. Critchfield, owner of the Glass Mountain Tree Farm, wrote to Bay Area school superintendents and county farm advisors, saying he has a surplus of 250,000 small trees which he will distribute to all elementary and high school students in the area.

Marin County Farm Adviser Winston Engvall said he has received requests for trees from four school districts.

DIFFICULT CARE

"I've tried to discourage any planting on the school grounds," Engvall said, "because such small trees would just get lost and would be difficult to care for."

He said the trees will be delivered to schools next week, and he expects more requests from other school districts during the next few days.

Dixie School District leads the list so far with requests for 950 trees. San Jose District has asked for 575; San Rafael elementary, 250, and Bolinas-Stinson, 50.

$2.9 Million Offered For Neider Land

An offer of $2,948,000 has been made for the Strawberry peninsula properties of the late Samuel R. Neider, it was disclosed today.

J. Boatner Chamberlain of the Pacific National Bank, executor of Neider's estate, said the bid was made by Milland Development Co., a San Francisco firm of real estate developers, for all the Neider property of approximately 260 acres except about 20 acres along the Redwood Highway zoned commercially.

Under the terms of Neider's will, the commercial portion cannot be sold at this time and is to be developed according to his original plans. Safeway Stores still holds a lease there on a supermarket site.

Acceptance of the Milland offer is subject to confirmation of the probate court. A hearing will be held in Dept. 9 of the Superior Court in San Francisco next Monday at 10:30 a.m. At that time a higher bid may be submitted but it must be 10 per cent above the first $10,000 and 5 per cent above the remainder of the Milland bid.

Chamberlain said the Milland offer was made for the property "as is" and not subject to removal of clouds on the title by reason of any existing litigation. The land is in several parcels, one of which was originally intended for multi-story apartments.

Morris Stulsaft of Milland Development Co. said he does not know exactly how the property will be developed as the firm's plans are dependent on further engineering studies. The P. E. Crowley Co., Mill Valley real estate firm, is representing Milland in the transaction.

According to Chamberlain, sale of the property would result in the creation of a trust fund and a preliminary distribution to beneficiaries of the estate. He said Neider's will is a complicated one, with several beneficiaries and trusts involved.

Iva Quiet As Defense Sums Up

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The defense began final arguments today at the double murder trial of Iva and Ralph Kroeger. Iva was on her good behavior.

The 44-year-old grandmother sat quietly in a chair, beaming at everyone while attorney Emmet Hagerty was telling the jury:

"It's better that 100 guilty ones be discharged than one innocent person to be convicted."

Yesterday the prosecution concluded two days of final arguments punctuated on Monday by 133 loud interruptions by Iva and on Tuesday by a snoring episode. She was carried out yesterday in an apparent stupor but an examining doctor found nothing wrong and sent her back for the afternoon session.

She was contrastingly decorous today while Hagerty quoted from the Bible in support of his case. His arguments were expected to take most of the day. Then the prosecution gets a rebuttal.

Light Showers Give Fractional Readings

Light but scattered showers, possibly the start of a predicted storm for Northern California, gave fractional rain readings in Marin County communities this morning.

The largest amount reported to noon was .21 of an inch at Chevy Chase in Larkspur.

Occasional showers were predicted for the Bay Area tonight, with possible snow above the 4,000-foot level in the Sierra.

Marin County readings to noon included San Rafael .17 of an inch, Sausalito .16,, Woodacre and Novato .15, and Point Reyes Station and San Anselmo, a trace.

Perfect Mastadon Jaw Fossil Discovered In Butte County

SACRAMENTO (AP) — A perfectly preserved fossil jaw of a prehistoric mastadon has been found by a state geologist about three miles north of the Butte County community of Pentz.

Robert S. Ford of the State Department of Water Resources said he was compiling data for a geologic map of the Sacramento Valley and surrounding areas when he saw some teeth sticking out of a vein of hard clay at the New Era Mine on Dry Creek.

He dug around and exposed a major part of the bone. He later found several small pieces of jawbone.

The remains—between 10 and 14 million years old—were taken to the University of California at Berkeley.

Braden Doubts Senate Approval

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Thomas W. Braden, controversial president of the State Board of Education, said today he has "some doubt" that the Senate will confirm his reappointment.

Braden said he felt the right-wing John Birch Society is behind much of the opposition to his confirmation.

WIRE NEWS BRIEFS From Everywhere

Country Music Stars Die In Crash

CAMDEN, Tenn. (UPI)—The wreckage of a small plane, missing with country music stars Hawkshaw Hawkins, Cowboy Copas and Patsy Cline aboard, was found near here today. Authorities reported there were no survivors.

Cline

Four persons were aboard the Piper Comanche which disappeared during turbulent weather last night in west Tennessee.

In addition to the three musicians, stars of Nashville's famed Grand Ole Opry, the plane was piloted by Miss Cline's manager, Randy Hughes.

Hawkins

The three stars and Hughes were on a flight from Kansas City to Nashville. They landed in Dyersburg, Tenn., about 6 p.m. last night, then took off for Nashville with three hours of fuel.

Visibility in the Camden area, where several persons reported they had seen the plane circling about 8 p.m., was extremely poor.

Copas

Camden is about 70 miles west of Nashville.

The wreckage of the plane was first sighted this morning in hill country near the Tennessee River from a fire watch tower.

A squall line moved across parts of Tennessee and Alabama last night, bringing heavy rain to the area.

Chaplin Jr.'s Wife Seeks Divorce

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—Mrs. Marta Brown Chaplin, 33, second wife of actor Charles Chaplin Jr., 37, filed suit for divorce yesterday to end the couple's marriage of less than a year.

Africans May Study In West

AMSTERDAM (UPI)—Five African students who had had enough of being called "black monkeys" by the Communists in Bulgaria said today they hoped to continue their studies in Western Europe.

TV Debate Study

CHICAGO (UPI) — Robert W. Sarnoff, National Broadcasting Co. board chairman, announced yesterday NBC will finance a study to determine the best format for televised debates between presidential candidates.

He said the study would be "a major contribution to our democratic process."

'No Attack On West'

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (UPI) —An official of Radio Free Europe said yesterday the Soviet Union will not attack the West as long as Communist satellite nations remain uncertain factors.

Stephen Bede told a civic club satellites in Central Europe "continue resistance against the Soviet Union" and should be considered "more a liability than a gain to the Russians."

Young Widow Burned

NEW DELHI (UPI) — Indian newspapers said today a young widow was seriously burned in a remote village when the residents tried to revive the ancient Hindu custom of Suttee and forced her onto her husband's funeral pyre.

The reports said the widow was saved by police. Suttee, a practice under which widows were burned alive with their dead husbands, has practically been stamped out in India.

Church Vs. Job

ST. LOUIS, Mo. (UPI)—Churchgoing mechanic Jesse Hemby, who was fired because he refused to work on Sundays, vowed today to carry on his fight for reinstatement "to the end."

"I haven't given up yet," said Hemby after a grievance committee of company and union representatives turned him down yesterday.

Hemby, married and a father of three, was fired by the Complete Auto Transit Co. Feb. 25 because he "repeatedly failed to report for work on Sundays as scheduled."

Hemby said he wanted to go to church, where he teaches a men's Bible class.

Railroad Talks

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Southern Pacific and the Brotherhood of Railway Clerks resumed automation talks under federal mediation today.

Mediator Frank O'Neill said yesterday both sides are working diligently and a final agreement should be ready by the weekend.

British Actor Dies

LONDON (UPI)—Actor Cyril Smith, 70, who appeared in more than 600 films during a 62-year career in the theater, died yesterday.

French Coal Strike

PARIS (AP)—The French coal strike went into its sixth day today with no indication of the miners weakening or of the government cracking down on labor's first major stand against President Charles de Gaulle's regime.

Drivers Can't Drive

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Eleven out of every 100 veteran drivers in California couldn't pass a new driving test if they had to, says William Ball of the Motor Vehicles Department.

He made the statement yesterday in testimony before the Assembly Transportation and Commerce Committee.

The Rockefeller Foundation appropriated $3,200,000 for fellowships and scholarships during 1962.

Rivers Overflow, Tornado Hits South

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Floods which have driven thousands of persons from their homes and caused widespread property damage and inconvenience to millions in four states appeared easing in some areas today.

However, the threat of further overflows remained in many sections of the flood-stricken regions of Ohio, West Virginia, Pennsylvania and Indiana. Cities in Kentucky along the surging Ohio River were possible danger spots.

The floodwaters from rivers and streams swollen by heavy rains and melting snow were blamed for at least seven deaths, including three in West Virginia and two each in Ohio and Indiana. Outside the major flood belt, one man drowned in a rain-swollen river in McMinville, in central Tennessee.

Hundreds of roads throughout the four-state area were closed. Many towns were isolated. Schools and industrial plants were closed in some communities. Train and bus service was delayed and in some places halted.

National Guard troops, civil defense groups and Red Cross disaster units joined in aiding the flood victims.

The chief bright spot in the dreary flood picture was the tapering off of the heavy rains which have pounded the region for several days.

A tornado and severe windstorms swept across areas in Alabama and Georgia yesterday. A twister which struck the Birmingham, Ala., area damaged about 85 buildings in nearby Bessemer and other suburban areas. Several persons were injured. Property damage was expected to run into the millions of dollars. Two persons were inijured and several houses damaged in a violent wind storm in Cave Springs, Ga.

About 1,000 families were made temporarily homeless by the surging waters in West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania. An estimated 500 persons have been forced to leave their homes in Indiana.

In Athens, Ohio, about 800 students were evacuated from four dormitories at Ohio University last night as the Hocking River overflowed lowlying areas of the campus. Several dozen families also were forced to leave their homes. Athens, a town of 16,470 in southeastern Ohio, was completely cut off from other communities, with all highways and the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks inundated.

In Warren County, in southern Ohio, the number of evacuees totaled more than 400 families.

Flood conditions in western Pennsylvania appeared generally improving. The crest of the Monongahela River passed Braddock and was expected to pass Pittsburgh without major overflows.

In Indiana, many rivers and streams headed toward expected crests above flood stage but the end of heavy rains eased the threat of major overflows.

Some flooding was reported in Maryland, with about 25 houses damaged in Crellin, in the western part of the state, after the Youghiogeny River spilled over its banks. Many highways in the area were inundated.

FUROR OVER DeGAULLE FOE ON BBC

LONDON (AP) — The opposition Labor Party and some British newspapers lashed the Conservative government and the security services today for letting former French Premier Georges Bidault slip in and out of England.

Bidault, hunted by France as chief of the anti-De Gaulle terrorist organization, appeared Monday on a taped television program on the British Broadcasting Corporation. The government said yeserday he apparently had left Britain.

BRITISH WRATH

De Gaulle's officials, who tightly control the French government radio and television service, implied that Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government should have kept the interview from being aired.

British wrath spared the virtually independent BBC and concentrated on the security services, already under heavy fire because three Soviet spies have turned up in government service in the past 19 months.

The Labor shadow cabinet called a special meeting tonight to draft a demand for an unequivocal statement by the government on its part in the affair.

The Laborites want to know exactly how Bidault slipped into Britain under the noses of security men, how he got away again, why detectives didn't track him down, and why officials apparently paid no attention to persistent press reports last January that Bidault was in London.

FORGED PASSPORTS

The Labor move did not imply any criticism of the right of the BBC to televise the interview.

Most sections of the press solidly defended the BBC's right to present news as it thought fit, but the newspapers were asking the same questions the Labor shadow cabinet was asking.

The Daily Mirror said Bidault has three forged passports under different names and that this information has been passed to all ports and airports in Britain and France. Bidault has been reported in a number of cities in West Europe in the past year and apparently moves about the Continent with relative freedom.

Scotland Yard's special branch of political detectives were reported under orders to spread their search for a highly organized French Secret Army Organization cell operating from London.

Seems To Be A Bloody New Virus This Year

By ALTON BLAKESLEE

NEW YORK (AP)—Is there a new virus around?

It surely seems so to thousands of persons hit this winter by funny aches and pains and upsets, including bloody noses blamed on "the bloody virus."

Perhaps it's true that brand new viruses have pepped up, and might even start appearing at a faster rate, says Dr. Robert Huebner of the National Institute of Allergy and Infectious Diseases.

Scientists only recently identified most of 120 or more viruses known to cause colds, fevers, muscular aches and pains, diarrhea, coughs and runny noses—a great variety of mostly minor ailments.

Man is their target, and man has evolved and multiplied over thousands of years.

Biologically speaking, viruses had to evolve also — "They weren't all present the day man was kicked out of paradise," says Dr. Huebner, director of the institute's laboratory of infectious diseases in Bethesda, Md.

Influenze viruses change or mutate fairly frequently. Any flu vaccine has to incorporate the strain of virus blazing up into an epidemic.

Other respiratory and intestinal viruses also might be mutating during chain-reaction epidemic reproducing more viruses in each person.

Something could go amiss in the genetic assembly line so that a slightly different virus is produced from time to time. With more than three billion people in the world now, the chances could be greater that a new virus could appear Heubner explains.

There's no way yet to prove this. Peculiar illnesses this year could well be due to some old virus that hadn't been active in recent years in your locality.

This year, for example, in some eastern cities many people get bloody noses, beyond the expectation of slight bleeding due to injury to nasal membranes by colds, perhaps abetted by low humidity in heated houses.

These people get real nosebleeds, sometimes along with coughs, muscular aches and intestinal upsets. One nose and throat specialist called it "the bloody virus."

Remember "Virus X," and "24-hour virus" and other names?

These are easy designations for infections when doctors and patients don't go to the trouble and expense of laboratory tests to identify the exact virus making a playground of your body.

Virus researchers have gone deeper and are well along in classifying 10 dozen or more viruses into types and families — sometimes overlapping — known as echo virus, RS or respiratory synctytial, adeno, rhino, entero, coryza, ARD, and ERC viruses.

They also are working out the story—still incomplete—of just what symptoms each type produces. These viruses cause varying amounts of annual sickness, and Asian flu got in some extra hefty licks this year.

Vaccines are controlling some of the most dangerous viruses, including polio, flu and smallpox.

WHAT THE UNION, RAIL FIGHTING IS ALL ABOUT

CHICAGO (AP)—The nation's railroads and the unions representing train crew members are locked in a critical battle.

What is the fight all about?

The rail lines demand revisions to abolish what they call feather-bedding. This is a practice of forced work which they claim costs them 600 million dollars a year. J. E. Wolfe, chairman of the National Railway Labor Conference, says the railroads are ready to conclude an agreement within the framework of recommendation made a year ago by a presidential railroad commission.

H. E. Gilbert, president of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Firemen and Enginemen, has termed the commission report "harsh, inhumane and retrogressive."

Here are the commission's six main recommendations and the views of each side:

1. No new firemen would be hired for diesel locomotives in freight or yard service. The 27,000 firemen with at least 10 years seniority would continue working until eliminated by natural attrition — death, retirement, etc.

Management contends: "You can't run a modern railroad on conditions set up years ago."

The unions call the firemen a diesel helper and say he's needed for greater safety on trains.

2. An overhaul of the wage structure, with pay geared to a combination of time and mileage. This is calculated to result in pay raises for 75 per cent of the workers while others could make up for pay cuts, in part, by putting in more hours and riding more miles.

Management holds the present pay structure to be a relic of an era when a 100-mile trip was regarded as the equivalent of a day's work.

The unions contend wages actually would be cut and hours would be lengthened by the proposed changes

3. Railroads should have unlimited right to introduce new equipment and modernize operations.

Wolfe commented "very generous employee protection is recommended."

"The brotherhoods are not against technological change," a union spokesman asserts.

4. Road service workers should do limited switching and terminal chores for their trains.

Management claims "flagrant featherbedding" has persisted in these areas.

The union says road service workers get the mileage basis, while yard service workers are paid on an hourly basis.

5. Lengths of runs should be adjusted to modern operating capabilities.

The railroads offered as an example of current practices: a 7-hour run from Minneapolis to Chicago — 400 miles — requires three engine crews.

"To submit to binding arbitration the basic agreement controlling a worker's seniority, job assignment, and working conditions subverts the mission of the labor movement, as we know it," says Gilbert.

6. Changes in sizes of train crews should be arbitrated after surveys and negotiations.

"In many cases," a management spokesman says, "we have two many trainmen and yard brakemen."

"The railroad industry is . . . hazardous, says Gilbert.

"It could be worse if the employees are denied their present contractual voice in the determination of crew size and work assignments.

Wells Fargo Plans To Open New Novato Branch Office

Wells Fargo Bank today announced it plans to open a Novato office early in July, and named the manager and assistant manager for the new branch

Located in the Novato Fair Shopping Center, the branch will be managed by Elmer E. Anderson, 46, promoted from assistant manager of the Wells Fargo office in Orinda. Assistant manager will be 45-year-old Clifford I. Horsman, tranferred from the San Francisco branch at Polk and California streets

Wells Fargo will occupy a one-story-and-mezzanine building with more than 5,000 square feet of floor space.

ELMER E. ANDERSON
To manage new bank

CLIFFORD I. HORSMAN
Assistant manager

Anderson, a native Californian and present resident of Lafayette, has been with the bank since graduation from Alameda High School in 1935. He and his wife, Jane, have a daughter, Linda, 20, and a son, Kerry, 16.

Horsman, a resident of California since youth, was graduated from San Francisco's Commerce High School in 1934 and joined the bank staff a year later. Most of his experience has been gained at the bank's branches in San Francisco.

He and his wife Marian, residing in Novato at 20 Nova Lane, have a son, Stephen, 15, and a daughter, Nancy, 5.

Novato Votes Personnel Survey

The Novato City Council, over vehement objections by Mayor M. E. Silva, agreed last night to the State Cooperative Personnel Service's outline for setting up job classifications and salaries and a personnel ordinance for Novato.

Silva was the lone dissenter when the council voted 3 to 1 (Everett Pozzi absent) last Dec. 11 to hire the state agency to make the survey. He continued his objections last night.

"We have a salary scale," argued Silva. "If someone's dissatisfied, they can leave. I'm not ashamed of the salaries we are paying."

Moreover, he asserted, "the state is too liberal with their salaries. I was for a private firm making the survey and I still am."

City Administrator J. Julien Baget said the need for the survey goes beyond salaries. He said he has "one white sheet of paper to work with," and no personnel ordinance.

"I would like a clear-cut rule, so I know, employees know and the council knows" who can dismiss or suspend employees and what rights of appeal they have, Baget declared.

Even this portion failed to meet Silva's approval, however. When David R. Frost, personnel analyst for the state agency, said employees and the administrator would fill out forms describing each employee's duty to be sent to Sacramento for use in preparing the program, Silva asked whether city council members would see the forms.

Normally, they don't, Frost replied.

"Well, this is one councilman that's going to ask for them," declared Silva.

Silva's repeated objections at one point brought the retort from Councilman Howard Schoof that the council had voted the survey and should go ahead "and find out the way they will do it. We are not here to reargue it; we are here to find out how to go ahead."

Frost and Bruce F. Austin, Northern California manager for the state service, said the job analysis, salary recommendations, and personnel ordinance should be completed within two months.

The program, they said, would have flexibility, which Councilman John Angeloni urged as necessary.

Tht council agreed the study should include an informal merit system and feasibility of a five-member citizen personnel board which would be advisory only.

The city is to pay the state $625 for the classification and salary survey and $250 to develop the merit personnel system.

PULLOUT

news conference was aimed at trying to clear up exactly what he could accept in tax legislation.

Kennedy has proposed that Congress lower taxes by 13.6 billion dollars over three years and offset this by tax revisions which would bring in 3.5 billion dollars for a net cut of about 10 billion dollars.

Then last week he said the important thing is to get a tax bill this year, and: "Whatever is necessary to get that bill, I would support."

Some of his remarks to a symposium on economic growth sponsored by the American Bankers Assn. were interpreted as meaning he would accept a 13.6-billion-dollar slash and, if need be, abandon his bid for offsetting changes in the revenue laws.

Asked whether that was a fair interpretation, Kennedy replied that he thought the best program was the one he had sent to Congress.

Kennedy opened the news conference with a volunteered statement plugging for congressional action on three legislative proposals—the youth opportunities bill, legislation to help produce more doctors and dentists, and mental health.

Kennedy was asked also about plans for continuing to deal with the Cuban problem, especially what he may discuss during his forthcoming visit to Costa Rica.

The president said the problem is people coming and leaving Cuba. The problem is one for other Latin-American countries, he said—each country for itself must keep track of these comings and goings, who are people are and what happens to them.

He said Cuba is still a problem, but not a military threat as it was.

Among other matters coming up:

Rockefeller — Kennedy was asked about a charge by New York Gov. Nelson Rockefeller that he had been appointing "segregationist" judges in the South.

The president said he felt that, on the whole, the men appointed by him and by former President Dwight D. Eisenhower had "done a remarkable job" on the civil rights question.

Budget—Asked about Republican talk of cutting government spending, Kennedy said there already had been deep cuts made in the budget presented to Congress. He suggested that if the Republicans wanted to make war-like speeches "it doesn't seem to me that we could be cutting our defense spending."

Nuclear—Kennedy said it is not the administration's position that a treaty would be accepted that would allow underground testing by the Russians to go indefinitely. He said moreover the Senate would not approve such a treaty.

Canada—Asked about trade relations with Canada, Kennedy said there are regular consultations of the problems. He added, "I would hope that the United States and Canada, having been drawn together by nature, would be able to cooperate."

OBITUARIES

George H. Lynott Rites Held

Funeral services were held yesterday for George Herring Lynott, 72, of Greenbrae, a retired Standard Oil Co. executive and lithography firm official, who died in a San Francisco hospital Sunday after a long illness.

He lived with his wife, Marie Meredith Lynott, at 378 Via Casitas in Greenbrae.

Lynott had a varied career, one of which landed him in the Santa Tomas Prison Camp for two years before being released by the Japanese during World War II.

He leaves a brother, Jack P. Lynott of Tuscon, Ariz.; and two stepchildren, Mrs. Jeanne Madson of San Rafael and Robert Meredith of Palm Springs.

Lynott was a 1915 graduate of the Naval Academy at Annapolis and also graduated from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. He represented Standard Oil Co. in the Far East for several years, then joined American Bank Note Co. of New York in Shanghai, working up to vice president.

Late in 1941, he was commissioned to deliver $260 million dollars in bank notes to the Chinese Nationalist government, but the ship was diverted to the Philippines. Lynott succeeded in destroying the notes to keep them from Japanese hands. He was interned for two years at Santa Tomas.

Lynott retired in 1951, settled in Oregon, then moved to Marin several years ago. He was a member of the Olympic Club in San Francisco.

Inurnment was at Woodlawn Memorial Park in Colma.

ISABELLE SILVA

Mrs. Isabelle N. Silva, 75, of 739 Bridgeway, Sausalito, died yesterday in a local hospital after a long illness.

Mrs. Silva, a native of the Azores, had been a resident of Marin County for 50 years. She was a member of the Star of the Sea Young Ladies Institute, Our Lady of Fatima, SPRSI and IDESST of Sausalito.

She is survived by a son, Walter J. Silva of Sausalito; a brother, Frank Homen of Gustine, Merced County, a grandson, and a great-granddaughter.

Requiem Mass will be said at 9:30 a.m. Friday at the Star of the Sea Church, Sausalito. The Rosary will be recited tomorrow at 8 p.m. at the Frank J. Keaton Chapel, Sausalito. Interment will be in Fernwood Cemetery, Sausalito.

FRANK MASSARA

Funeral services for Frank E. Massara, 74, of Redwood City, stepfather of Carlo Gnemmi of 1447 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, will be held Friday and Saturday in Redwood City.

Massara, a native of Italy, died yesterday in a San Francisco hospital following a long illness. He was a retired foreman for a chemical company. He was a member of the Redwood City chapter of the Sons of Italy.

Other survivors are his wife, Mrs. Lucia Massara of Redwood City, a daughter, Mrs. Leo Belluomini of San Mateo, and a sister, Mrs. Rosa Console of Italy.

Rosary will be recited at 8 p.m. Friday at Redwood Chapel in Redwood City. Sons of Italy services will be held at 7:30 p.m. Requiem Mass will be offered at 10:30 a.m. at St. Pius Catholic Church in Redwood City, followed by entombment at Holy Cross Cemetery in Colma.

RUTH SEATON

Funeral services for Mrs. Ruth Carolyn Seaton, 69, of Larkspur, a resident of Marin County for eight years, will be held at 12:30 p.m. Friday at the Halsted and Co. funeral home in San Francisco.

Mrs. Seaton died unexpectedly of a heart seizure Monday at her home, 259 Madrone Avenue.

She was born in San Francisco and lived for many years in Palo Alto, but the family had a summer home in Larkspur. When her husband, Frank F. Seaton, retired as district manager for Foremost Dairy Co., they moved permanently to Marin.

Mrs. Seaton was a member of the George H. Thomas Circle, Grand Army of the Republic.

Surviving besides her husband are a daughter, Mrs. Ruth F. Orrell of Chula Vista (San Diego County), three grandchildren and three great-grandchildren. The daughter and her husband, F. M. Orrell, are former residents of Ross and San Anselmo.

Private burial will follow funeral services.

MABEL THORN

Graveside services for Mrs. Mabel Emma Thorn, 49, mother of Mrs. Sally Hickok of San Rafael, were held Monday in Lakeport.

Mrs. Thorn died Saturday in a Lakeport hospital after a short illness. She was a native of Colorado and had resided in California 32 years.

She is survived by her husband, E. R. Thorn; a son and three daughters, R. E. Thorn and Mrs. Jeannette Snyder of Lakeport; Mrs. Peggy Fritch of Willits, and Mrs. Hickok; a brother, Lawrence Crease of Utah; her mother and stepfather, Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Barkley of Upper Lake, and nine grandchildren.

Death Of Muslim Ruled Accidental

"I saw this fellow lay down," said Bortfeld. "I didn't know my shot had struck him. I thought he had been knifed. Evidently he was pushed or fell into the line of fire."

Several officers quoted from state penal instructions which make it clear the guards are not to fire with intent to hit anyone in similar situations.

An earlier shot had been fired in warning by Officer R. L. Beavin, who testified that at 10:10 a.m. three or four separate fights started between white and colored men.

"I yelled at them to stop," he said, "but it had no effect. Then I fired a warning shot between them."

As the early witnesses gave their testimony, a courtroom only partially filled with curiosity seekers began to fill with standees. All Negroes, the men were neatly dressed in business suits, white shirts and ties, the women in long dresses and each with a scarf wrapped around her head.

At the first recess, the Muslims, who do not smoke or drink, moved into most of the seats vacated by smoking spectators, and remained there until the verdict was finally announced at 12:10 a.m.

James Smith, a Muslim and buddy of Johnson, began his testimony with the flat statement that Johnson had been murdered. He insisted that he, Johnson and Charles Martinez had been attacked by white convicts in the first altercation and that they were seeking revenge when the fatal shot was fired.

Johnson was scuffling with Billie Jean Cook, who also testified, when he was struck by the shot. Smith stood over his body "for 30 or 25 seconds," he said defying the guards.

Sgt. Royal W. Jimerson testified that Smith "was repeating if we touched Johnson he would kill us."

Both Jimerson and Lt. W. R. Stevenson said they had called on the guards along the gun rail to shoot. Both said the situation was one which might have gone completely out of hand.

Asked by one of the jurors whether he had ordered the "gunmen" to shoot at any particular inmate, Jimerson said he had shouted "use that stuff!" referring to tear gas, and that Smith may have thought he was ordering them to shoot him.

George M. Tanaka, correctional counselor at the adjustment center, who followed Jimerson into the yard after the first shot, said, "I think mob action was imminent."

Jimerson, queried by a juror as to the need for shooting, said, "The inmates don't respect the rifle until the lead is flying."

Other witnesses included: Dr. Robert B. Schneider, who performed the autopsy on Johnson; Dr. Herman A. Gross, chief medical officer at San Quentin, who told of the battle at the prison hospital to save Johnson's life; James Cry, Negro correctional officer, who said "the shot was necessary"; convicts Robert Gillette and William Deuett, and correctional officer Jesse R. Philips.

Patrick Hallinan, who has taken on the case of two Muslims in U.S. District Court in San Francisco, was an interested spectator.

Public Bus Operation Hearing Set March 21

A meeting to examine which government agency might best take charge of a public bus operation will be held March 21 at 8 p.m. in the supervisors' chamber in the Civic Center, it was announced today by Mrs. Margaret Azevedo, chairman of the committee on metropolitan problems of the Marin Council for Civic Affairs.

Mrs. Azevedo said it had been necessary to postpone the meeting, originally set tentatively for today, to suit convenience of speakers.

These are to include Robert Nisbet, attorney for the Alameda-Contra Costa Transit District which provides commute service into San Francisco and local service; Marin County Counsel E. Warren McGuire; County Administrator Alan Bruce, and some spokesman for the Bay Area Rapid Transit District.

Mrs. Azevedo said she would invite the Greyhound Lines to send someone either to speak or to observe.

Others to be invited, said Mrs. Azevedo, will include Thomas D. Hardcastle of Novato and Leland S. Murphy of Inverness, Marin representatives on the board of the Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District, and County Supervisor Peter Behr of Mill Valley, who has been to the fore in commuter affairs.

Mrs. Azevedo said the meeting will take up the possible creation of a Marin Transit District similar to the Alameda-Contra Costa district as a means of matching the East Bay service and commute charge of 40 cents, with 25 cents for local rides.

Ghirardelli Chocolate Firm Is Bought Out

SAN LEANDRO (AP) — The 111-year-old D. Ghirardelli Chocolate Co., of San Francisco has been bought by the Golden Grain Macaroni Co. "to diversify Golden Grain's interests."

The purchase price was reported to be in excess of $500,000.

Views On U.S. School Aid Outlined

Views of National Education Assn. and the National Assn. of Manufacturers on general federal aid to education were outlined last night by spokesmen of the groups in an informal debate at Redwood High School.

Mayor Roy Archibald of San Mateo, a former College of San Mateo teacher and legislative consultant to the NEA, reviewed several federal aid measures already in effect to indicate the government's acknowledgement of its role in helping schools.

Archibald said the NEA favors general federal aid, but is opposed to including non-public schools.

Edwin C. Bliss, a former newspaperman and NAM representative, said the school crises of the 1950s have been recognized and are being met by state and local sources. He said the NAM is not opposed to specific aid, such as that given to federal impact areas, but is opposed to general aid and especially the lumping together of all federal school aid in one package.

The program was sponsored by the Wolfe Grade and Redwood High School Parent-Teacher Associations.

Drug Association Signs Agreement

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — The Northern California Pharmaceutical Assn. has signed a consent decree agreeing to abide by the anti-trust laws against price-fixing.

The decree, effective in 30 days, was filed in U.S. District Court yesterday and follows the terms of an injunction already in effect.

The action winds up a suit filed by the Anti-Trust Division of the Department of Justice in 1960 following criminal indictment of the association on charges of price fixing.

The association was convicted following a jury trial before the late U.S. District Judge Louis E. Goodman and was fined $40,000.

Thefts From Cars

Theft of four hubcaps and a tachometer from a 1962 Thunderbird and Falcon was reported to San Rafael police today by owner Leonard Michael Cohen of 55 Canal Street, San Rafael. Cohen said the cars were parked in his carport last night.

Fabrics On Exhibit

Sonja Pimentel, a young Sausalito mother of three, is holding her first one-artist show this month at Creative Arts in Sausalito, displaying tapestries, hangings, pillows, dolls and animals. Also being shown is a selection of large pots by Robert Dittmer of Greenbrae.

26 Missing Items Are Returned

Twenty-six additional items missing from two San Rafael stores were returned to San Rafael police yesterday by the husband of a Fairfax housewife due to face petty theft charges today in Marin Municipal Court.

The items, valued at about $225, were in addition to about $500 worth of goods stolen from Mobilia of Denmark at 1417 Fourth Street, San Rafael, which were recovered by San Rafael police Monday in the home of Mrs. Joan Delores Springett, 34, of 28 Oak Tree Lane.

Her husband, Robert Louis Springett, returned an additional $95 worth of goods taken from Mobilia of Denmark and $130 worth of goods taken from the adjoining store, Steele's Patio Shop. They included trays, wooden spoons, a serving bowl, glasses and napkin holders.

College Meeting

College of Marin trustees will meet with representatives of the architectural-engineering firm of Falk and Booth at 8:30 p.m. today in room 24, Harlan Hall, to discuss a new student center, a second campus site, a music-speech building, and a summer work schedule.

Tools, Wrench Stolen

Burglars entered the Carlos Transmission Service at 585 Irwin Street, San Rafael, sometime Monday night by breaking a rear window and made off with tools and an air impact wrench, San Rafael police reported today.

Bolinas Sanitary Unit Out

Dissolution of Bolinas Sanitary District was approved by county supervisors yesterday after a short hearing at which no objection was voiced.

On motion of Supervisor George Ludy, it was agreed that the dissolution would be effective next June as a step in the large plan of integrating sewage disposal facilities for the whole Bolinas-Stinson Beach area.

Sherman Smith, a director of the Bolinas Public Utility District, told the board his district is larger in area than the sanitary district and that the Bolinas community felt that powers of the sanitary district were limited.

This, he indicated, is one of several actions designed as cooperation with wishes of the Bay Regional Water Pollution Control Board that facilities be combined and improved. Existing sewer lines carry untreated effluent into the ocean.

County Counsel E. Warren McGuire said partial research into the question of county financial cooperation with local existing groups for study of the whole watershed, including some ranches in unincorporated areas, indicates that no obstacle will develop in use of county funds.

Public Works Director Donald R. Frost said work of the sanitary district will be taken over by the utility district as part of a plan which affects Bolinas and Bolinas Beach districts together with the Stinson Beach County Water District.

Novato Schools Sign Swimming Pool Pact

The Novato Unified School District board last night signed a final agreement with the City of Novato for construction of a community swimming pool on the high school campus.

Trustee William Kirk said four pool architects have been invited to a meeting of the pool committee, tentatively set for March 13, when an architect is to be selected.

The Novato Unified School District board also:

1. Received the resignations of William Greving, grounds supervisor, and part-time custodian Ortis Mickle, and approved hiring Donald Auman to fill Mickle's position and Hugo Trau as a fulltime custodian.

2. Approved school and holiday calendars for 1963-1964 with classes to start Sept. 10 and end June 11.

3. Signed a contract with Robert Miller of San Rafael for construction of a multi-use room at Lu Sutton School for $99,777.

4. Approved a survey for an elementary school site in the Bahia subdivision at cost of $411.23.

5. Approved summer school dates for the elementary school from July 1 to Aug. 2 and for the high school from June 24 to Aug. 2.

Sausalito Has No Land For Navy Widows, Retired Men

Sausalito has no land to give away for a home for Navy widows and retired officers.

Mayor Paul Micou, at last night's city council meeting, directed a letter be written to this effect to Beatrice M. Wheelock of Carmel.

Mrs. Wheelock's request, forwarded to the council from the chamber of commerce, advised that a $4,500,000 Navy-Marine residence foundation, for widows and retired officers, is planned to be built in Washington, D.C.

"Many of us wish it could be in California . . . it would seem to me that your area would be most desirable," wrote Mrs. Wheelock. She said other cities such as Santa Rosa and San Diego have given land to attract organizations.

"The proposal is an interesting one but I don't believe we have any land available for such a venture at this time," said Micou.

Marinship Apartment Denial Is Upheld

The Sausalito City Council last night upheld planning commission denial of a use permit for Heath Land Co. to build a 114-unit apartment house in Marinship.

Mayor Paul Micou abstained, saying his partner is interested in the venture financially. Councilman Howard Sievers was absent. The three other councilmen all voted for denial.

Councilman Michael Harris first moved to adopt a subcommittee report allowing the use permit provided it was for 96 units and allowing a 41-foot height level above mean sea level. Councilman Jan Paul Dyk seconded the motion.

Motion and second were withdrawn after it was brought out that developers apparently did not intend to use the use permit for 96 units, and after John J. Gallas asked what happened to the city resolution prohibiting any further construction on the waterfront on stilts. (The development was to be partially over water on pilings.)

Councilman Philip S. Ehrlich Jr. commented that the reduction in units was reason for sending the request back to the planning commission.

Developer Thomas E. Flowers said he had hoped for a compromise. After motion for denial was made, he unsuccessfully urged the council to approve the permit for 96 units.

Councilmen granted Perego, Harney and Teague, Inc., a six-month extension on its improvement bond for the Buena Vista Heights subdivision.

This followed a report by City Atty. Leland H. Jordan that there was no adequate ground on which to revoke the use permit or variance authorizing the high rise apartments. Jordan said conditions have not been violated except for a default in the subdivision agreement. Revocation was suggested last Tuesday by councilmen who felt developers were not living up to their agreements.

The council heard a letter from Gallas proposing that the corporation yard on Caledonia Street, to be abandoned by the city, be converted to a teen-age and senior center. Gallas said the building might be used by senior citizens by day, teen-agers at night. He also proposed a larger building to accommodate both teen-agers and senior citizens to be used day and night.

Micou asked that Gallas's letter be filed, "bearing in mind a senior center will be a useful adjunct to any facility we propose to have." He added the recreation commission is now working with the teen-agers on a proposed center.

The Sausalito City Council Also:

1. Heard request by Richard A. Pahl, 240 Woodward Avenue, for abandonment of Testa Street between Woodward and Bridgeway so that Pahl might purchase it. Council referred this to the superintendent of streets and indicated it would look toward "fixing up the street and stairway" rather than abandonment.

2. Agreed to look for a more up-to-date dance ordinance after hearing request of Sam Zakessian for an amendment of business license ordinance to permit an annual dance license.

3. Said it would hold its next hearing on the new sign ordinance in April, but set no date.

4. Heard letter of praise from Sausalito School District Supt. Marcus F. Davis for police and firemen's quick response to a bomb scare Feb. 11 at Richardson Bay School.

5. Designated Harris to draw up a resolution for the next council meeting accepting the resignation of Mrs. George C. Cummings from the library board. "We're deeply grateful to her for the work she has done on the board," Micou said.

6. Rejected all six bids on a street widening project for Third Street, Richardson to North streets, on hearing the low bid, $7,897, was 38 per cent over engineer's estimate of $5,691.

7. Awarded an $884 contract to low bidder Lee Mac Paving Co. for resurfacing Bulkley Street from Harrison Avenue to Princess Str Harrison Avenue to Princess Street. Estimate was $5,691.

8. Approved landscape plans for Marinship shopping center.

9. Authorized repairing shoulders on Bridgeway, between Napa and Spring streets, at $7,000.

10. Approved request of Rob Rose of Sausalito Community TV System to install a shelter for booster TV equipment on Currey Avenue right-of-way.

11. Authorized application to Interstate Commerce Commission on behalf of Marinship shopping center for a rail crossing to serve Harbor Drive. This would mean Gate Three Road would be closed.

12. Decided to ask Rob Rose when he plans to make repairs to Toyon Road, a private road he installed, which has been called "unsafe" by two residents.

13. Approved warrants and payroll totaling $49,339.

14. Adjourned to Tuesday for a public hearing on the Marinship plan.

RECORDER OFFICE SEES FUND SAVING

Better service coupled with money savings were promised county supervisors yesterday by County Recorder N. T. Giacomini in gaining approval of a new system to combine microfilming and recording in one operation.

Giacomini said the work to be carried out by the Mark Larwood Co. at price of 11 cents a print including two rolls of processed film would save at least $3,000 annually. It would, he added, require no added personnel or capital, and allow continued use of the county photostat machine for reproduction of previously recorded documents and service to other departments.

One of the two extra film rolls would be retained in the recorder's office for daily use, while the other would be stored in a Marin County vault in Santa Cruz.

The county's camera will be used for recording and an electrostatic printing process for the reproduction of reduced size copies of filed documents, Giacomini explained.

HE'S AT HOME NOW

Dog Wasn't Mad, Just Tired And Thirsty

Humans walk 50 miles and everyone thinks it is great, but when an Irish setter takes a one-mile hike the people shout "mad dog!"

Mike, the Irish setter, learned this unhappy truth yesterday when he walked from his home on Par Lane in Country Club Estates into the San Jose Boulevard area of Novato.

Mike, who is 13 years old, was tired and thirsty after the hike, so there may have been a little foam about his mouth. Neighbors saw him and called Novato police. Police called the Marin Humane Society and Air Police from Hamilton Air Force Base.

Shortly after 8 a.m., Mike was cornered by a police officer, but he slipped away and had a good romp in the neighborhood until he picked up a "shadow" about noon.

Irvin Sousa, field man for the humane society, said he followed Mike home to Par Lane.

"His owner, a nice elderly lady, had no idea Mike had wandered so far. She promised to keep him at home," Sousa said.

It was reported yesterday that the Humane Society had taken Mike into custody for observation as a possible mad dog. But there was no need for that.

"There was nothing wrong with the dog," Sousa said. "He was just tired."

Corte Madera Lions Canopy Gets Approval

A canopy to be installed by the Corte Madera Lions Club over the entrance to the town recreation center was approved by the Corte Madera Board of Design last night.

A short while later the planning commission, meeting in special session following calls from Town Mgr. Arthur H. Brandow, approved the canopy 3-1, Commissioner Felix Pioli dissenting and Commissioner Jennings W. Smith absent. Pioli did not like the canopy's design.

The Lions Club first asked the town council Monday night to approve the canopy without hearings before the board and the commission. The council declined to do so, but gave approval conditioned on approval by the other groups.

A former Bermuda town barber became the first Negro representative in the U.S. Congress. J. H. Rainey left Bermuda after the American Civil War.

College Of Marin Grades Highest

College of Marin students transferring to University of California at Berkeley are receiving the highest grades of students from any state junior college, Dr. William Sheppard, director of the university's office of relations with schools, has announced.

The grade point average of transferees ranges from 2.3 (C plus) to 2.8, with Marin students at the 2.8 level, Sheppard advised college President Stephen E. Epler in a preliminary report on a three year study running through 1961.

The top news story of 1888 was the blizzard from March 11 to 14, which immobilized New York and took 400 lives.

4 New Firemen To Be Recruited For Sausalito

Four new firemen are to be recruited in Sausalito to maintain a two-man staff at all times at the city's second fire station, to be constructed at Highway 101 and Spencer Avenue.

Approval for recruitment was given last night by the Sausalito City Council.

City Atty. Leland H. Jordan reported he hopes to have a new draft of the agreement with the State of California to acquire the property before the council at its next meeting. He said the agreement is "satisfactory." Mayor Paul Micou instructed City Mgr. Charles A. Brown to ask architect George T. Rockrise to proceed with design of the firehouse.

Brother, Sister Art Exhibit Set

A joint exhibition of metalwork by Victor Ries, Mill Valley silversmith, and watercolors, drawings and prints by his sister, Julia Ris, a noted European artist, will open at the M. H. de Young Memorial Museum in San Francisco's Golden Gate Park on March 14 and continue through April 14.

Ries will show handwrought architectural pieces including an eight-foot room divider, candlesticks, cups and the other altar pieces, jewelry and ecclesiastical appointments.

His sister, a resident of Switzerland, is the wife of the well-known sculptor and industrial designer, Fritz Heid.

Jack, Four Tires Stolen At Station

David J. Frym, owner of a service station at 640 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard, San Anselmo, reported yesterday to San Anselmo police the theft of a heavy duty hydraulic jack and four recapped tires, valued at a total of $210.

Frym noticed the loss on Feb. 25, but thought at first his brother had taken the tires and jack. Police said there were no signs of forced entry.

Re-enlists in Navy

Laurence Ray Parrott of 1563 Lincoln Avenue, San Rafael, has re-enlisted in the Navy through the San Rafael recruiting office as a machinist third class. He has been assigned to the Navy air conditioning and refrigeration school at San Diego.

Arthur Murray Dancing Lessons

Now...$50 Dance Course for only $19.50

3-Point Plan to Popularity

1. Private Lessons. You get individual attention from the very first lesson! An Arthur Murray expert will privately teach you the basic step that gives you the key to all dances.

2. Meet New People. As you advance, you'll join group classes where you'll meet lots of attractive new people. You'll get to dance with many different partners, make hosts of new friends.

3. Parties and Fun. Gay student-teacher get togethers are a regular part of your lessons at Arthur Murray's. The atmosphere of these gatherings is so friendly and relaxed, even the shyest person enjoys himself.

Once a year Arthur Murray makes this money-saving offer, so that more and more people can put a little fun in their lives. For no one knows better than he what good times come with being a good dancer.

Learning to dance at Arthur Murray's is quick and easy, because there is only one basic step to learn. And even beginners master it in almost no time at all! So don't wait. Take advantage of this once-a-year special while it lasts. Studios open daily 11 a.m. to 10 p.m.

Sheriff Might Transport County Prisoners By Air

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos submitted to county supervisors yesterday proposed agreements for air transportation of county prisoners.

"This," he said, "is to determine whether air travel will be feasible and also whether it will prove to be a saving to our department to return prisoners by aircraft for the next year, weather permitting.

"After this trial period I can then come up with a fairly accurate figure as to cost compared to travel by county car."

Acting Chairman William D. Fusselman promptly moved authorization to sign providing the county insurers could provide suitable coverage. Administrator Alan Bruce said county counsel had suggested both insurance and workmen's compensation as points which should be checked legally.

Though there was provision that prisoners must consent to air transport, Supervisor William A. Gnoss voiced anxiety that assurance be obtained as to safety of aircraft for benefit of both deputies and prisoners.

"I see the contract requires safety inspection," said Fusselman, "but if you don't do it you can be dead a long time." It was decided to continue to March 12.

The supervisors also:

1. Appointed Gnoss's son, William A. Gnoss Jr., intermediate account clerk in the office of treasurer-tax collector at $360 monthly; Robert K. Ohea Jr., legal clerk in county clerk's office at $465; Martin J. Conlin Jr., deputy sheriff at $486, and Joseph Kendricks, deputy sheriff at $508; and Karelyn E. Shapley, intermediate clerk to the recorder at $345.

2. Tabled a proposed amendment to the merit system ordinance relating to efficiency staff reductions, finding it superfluous as right of appeal had been deleted.

3. Received report from public works department that complaints of accidents at Civic Center narrowed down to two mishaps involving a slip on steps and similar slip on wet terazzo; rubber mats to be placed in wet weather.

4. Referred to public works department a Nicasio School request for caution and speed-limit signs near school, and a Fairfax request for children's walkway extension from Olema Drive to Oak Manor Drive.

5. Asked investigation as to how a "caravan group" with 150 trailers could be accommodated for a Civic Center tour next Saturday, later welcomed the visitors on learning the trailers wouldn't be brought.

6. Reappointed Gnoss as Marin County representative on the board of the North Coast Counties Supervisors Assn.

7. Approved a contract for state-county cooperation on a Novato Master Plan despite Fusselman's misgivings that this would again delay a Kentfield Master Plan.

Catholic High Names CSF Life Members

Two Marin Catholic High School seniors, George Fedoroff and Donald Hemovich, have completed requirements for a life membership in the California Scholarship Federation.

Other Marin Catholic students who have earned membership in the federation are:

Seniors: John Faville, Michael Grady, Richard Murray and John Pollock.

Juniors: Margaret Andrade, Betty Baysinger, David Bonfilio, Carole Bradley, Robert Carney, Phillip Cassou, Peter Del Tredeci, John Pasqualetti, Rod Ponath, Gregory Sarno, Barbara Scatena, Russell Taylor and James Wagele.

Sophomores: Deirdre Africa, Susan Houston, Jennifer Laughead, Patrick Nance, Thomas Soden, Drew Sullivan, Loarn Thoelecke and Carol Winters.

Lagunitas Trustees Vote School Study

Trustees of the Lagunitas School District last night voted in favor of continued study of the unification of the entire Tamalpais High School District.

The 4-0 vote was after discussion of seven unification plans proposed at the last meeting of the augmented Marin County Committee on School District Organization. At that meeting, school boards were asked to decide which plan they preferred.

Supt. Clifford Frye said trustees favored unification of the entire district, but if a second choice were required it would probably be a split into two north-south districts with the Drake and Redwood High attendance areas in one and the Tamalpais High attendance area in another.

Trustee John Nielsen was absent last night.

In other business, Frye told trustees that there will be no "growth" revenue from the state next year. Average daily attendance has increased from 391 to 413, but assessed valuation has also increased due to county reappraisal.

Next meeting of the board will be at 8 p.m., March 19 in the school multi-purpose room.

Youth For Christ Bible Quiz Slated

Greater Marin Youth for Christ will put the Novato Bible Club against the San Rafael Bible Club in a quiz contest at 7:30 p.m. Saturday at the San Anselmo First Baptist Church.

Also on the program will be a singing sermon by Victor Hubbard of Hayward with piano accompaniment by G. Nelson Zarfas of Richmond.

Completes Training

Marine Pvt. Earl W. Deneau, son of Maj. and Mrs. E. W. Deneau of 10 Eliseo Dr., Greenbrae, has completed four weeks of individual combat training with the Second Infantry Training Regiment at Camp Pendleton.

Hamilton Airman Fined For Drunken Driving

T/Sgt. Edgar Cecil Butler, 36, of 78th Civil Engineers, Hamilton Air Force Base, was fined $166 yesterday for drunken driving.

Judge Joseph G. Wilson of Marin Municipal Court sentenced Butler for driving while intoxicated along Highway 101 last Feb. 13. Butler must remain on six months probation.

Cyclists Planning Three Riding Events A Week

The newly organized Marin cyclists, who have drawn a membership of 50, have decided on three bicycle riding events a week, Kenneth Potter of Corte Madera, president, announced today.

Potter was elected at a weekend meeting. Other officers:

Norman Nock of Corte Madera, vice president and senior team captain; Attilio Malatesta, Corte Madera, touring captain; Robert Marshall, Corte Madera, racing captain; Mrs. Joan Mulligan, San Rafael, secretary; Peter Bonet, Sausalito, treasurer; William Swigart, Tiburon, sergeant-at-arms; and Nelson Shreve, Tiburon, editor of a monthly publication to be issued, the Handlebar.

Potter announced rides will be held at the following times: 8:30 a.m. Saturday, training ride of about 15 miles for juniors and novices; 1 p.m. Saturday, tour of 25 miles for experienced juniors and senior riders and 9:30 a.m. Sunday, tour of 35 to 150 miles for seniors only, involving hill-climbing and fast touring.

Members decided to meet on the second Friday of each month, with the next meeting at 7:30 p.m. April 12 at the Corte Madera Bike Shop, 5772 Paradise Drive.

Sleepy Hollow School Science Fair Winners

About 200 parents viewed exhibits at the Sleepy Hollow School Science Fair last Thursday, according to Principal Donald A. Wallace.

First place winners were: Nickey Czufin, eighth grade physical science division, with an exhibit entitled, "Point Reyes Drift"; Christine Talbot, eighth grade biological science, "UNA"; Kristine Long seventh grade physical science, "Rain Cycle," and Debbie Fialkowski, seventh grade biological science, "Moulds."

Volunteers To Man K.O. Polio Phones

Nearly 1,500 volunteers will attempt to telephone every Marin household tomorrow night to remind residents to take Sabin Type III oral polio vaccine on Sunday.

Mrs. Bert Corona of 25 Sea Way, San Rafael, chairman of the Marin PTA group directing the telephone campaign, said that a reverse telephone directory will be divided by communities and re-divided so that all numbers may be called in as short a time as possible.

Type III vaccine will be dispensed on sugar cubes at 20 Marin County immunization centers from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. Sunday. The vaccine is furnished free, because voluntary donations in the first two K.O. Polio clinics brought enough money to pay costs for all three clinics.

Immunizations will be speeded up if families will fill out pre-registration forms, said Dr. Eugene P. Shatkin, Marin Medical Society polio chairman.

Forms will be distributed through the schools and by boy and girl scout groups at supermarkets, business houses and door-to-door.

608 State Fires

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A total of 608 fires occurred in state institutions last year, causing $17,217 in damage, the State Fire Marshal's office said. Highest damage was $2,500 in a fire at San Quentin Prison, Aug. 8.

Dixie Meeting

Dixie School District trustees will meet Saturday from 9 a.m. to noon in closed session at the district office to discuss hiring personnel for the 1963-64 school year, Supt. Dennie B. Willis announced.

More Money Asked For Tower Times

A request for an additional $1,900 to publish the weekly College of Marin student newspaper, Tower Times, this semester will be discussed by Marin Junior College district trustees in Room 61, Art Building, at 8 p.m. tomorrow.

The request by faculty adviser Paul Miller has been approved by Dean of Students Irwin P. Diamond and social sciences chairman Leonard Blomquist.

Miller reports the paper is costing $2,000 a year more to publish this year than in 1961-62 after a $1,000 increase in 1960-61, due to higher production costs.

He said trustees budgeted $1,500 for the current school year and the student executive council provided $1,000 for fall semester and another $1,000 for the spring semester. Of this $3,500 total, $2,600 already has been spent. The executive council has voted to contribute an additional $400.

Trustees will consider legal action to obtain the property of Mrs. Louise G. Phoelecke at 25 Laurel Avenue for expansion.

The board will ponder a report by dean Diamond and counselor Wanda Glass asserting there is a shortage of adequate student housing. Diamond will report on students who fail or get put on probation.

Appeal For Books For Sierra Leone

A plea for books to be sent to Sierra Leone, made in an editorial in the Tamalpais Union High School District newspaper, has brought one box of books but no organized drive.

The request made by Mike McCone, first student body president of Drake High School and now a member of the Peace Corps in Sierra Leone, has not been picked up by any organization, according to Edward J. Neumeier, coordinator of journalism and publications for the district.

Neumeier said he had received one box of books and a promise for another from individuals.

REFUGEE WITH FEET ON THE GROUND

Antonio Infante exhibits the soles of the shoes he was forced to wear when he arrived in Miami from Cuba yesterday with 100 other refugees on on a Red Cross plane that delivered goods to Havana. Infante was accompanied by his 9-year-old daughter. He said Cuban soldiers stopped the bus he was riding en route to Havana and took all wearable shoes from passengers. (AP Wirephoto)

Till Tapper, Friend Put Under Arrest

A San Franciscan who reportedly returned the money he took from a cash register in Novato yesterday was in Marin County Jail today, facing a burglary charge and a charge of negotiating U.S. Treasury Department checks.

Novato Police Chief Roy McLaren said his department discovered that Victor Buchanan Jr., 50, was wanted on the federal charge after he was taken into custody in a car on Highway 101 in Terra Linda at 3 p.m. yesterday.

With him was Douglas E. Middlebrook, 40, of San Francisco, who was held in Marin County Jail without bail today as a parole violator. Buchanan was held in lieu of $3,675 bail and was to appear in Marin Municipal Court for arraignment on the burglary charge this afternoon.

McLaren said James A. Davis, proprietor of the Novato Lawnmower Center, 7474 Redwood Highway, spotted Buchanan near his cash register shortly before noon yesterday. Davis checked the register and found it empty. He approached Buchanan and said:

"If you don't want to get in trouble, you'd better give the money back."

Buchanan gave him a $10 bill, McLaren said. Davis said there should be more. Buchanan then gave Davis 13 one-dollar bills.

Davis then watched Buchanan go next door to a gas station. Davis called police, giving them a description of Buchanan and his car. The car was stopped three hours later by Sheriff's Deputy Theodore V. Hughes, who took both Buchanan and Middlebrook to Novato for questioning.

Mill Valley Cascade Land For State?

A proposal that the city of Mill Valley deed or sell its 4.72 acres of Cascade Dam property to the state for park development is expected to be discussed at the 8 p.m. meeting of the city council today.

Maurice H. Capps of San Francisco, who owns 53 acres adjacent to the dam, suggested the sale "to insure the retention of one of the most scenic areas left in the greater San Francisco Bay Area." The property is adjacent to 161 acres of surplus Marin Municipal Water District lands to be taken over by the state.

Capps said, he would be willing to lease or sell to the state 25 to 30 acres of his property if the city is willing to cooperate with its Cascade Dam property.

The area now has inadequate police patrol and is being "loused up" by young hoods and litterbugs, his letter declared.

Inverness Rezoning Is Upheld

Three Marin County supervisors yesterday upheld a 5-1 county planning commission vote in rezoning two properties north of Inverness for "limited roadside business."

In taking action at instigation of Supervisor George Ludy of Inverness, the trio went against strenuous protest by Peter Whitney as head of the Inverness Improvement Assn. Whitney said he'd expected the hearing to be continued to next week for return of Supervisor Peter Behr of Mill Valley from an eastern trip.

"Mr. Behr is not running my district and the hearing was set at my request for today," retorted Ludy, just back from two weeks in Mexico. "This area is fit only for commercial use and to make it residential would be to cut off access to Tomales Bay by the public."

Whitney declared there'd have been a big turnout from West Marin if residents had not expected a continuance for one week. Six who were present divided on the issue.

Against Whitney's listing of people opposed, Ludy declared: "I too have consulted the people, virtually everybody in Inverness, and the consensus was that this rezoning should be allowed."

Two properties affected were what Ludy described as a former dump area now occupied by the Golden Hinde Boatel, and a 1.24-acre parcel alongside owned by William H. Marshall, who wants to open a seafood restaurant.

Rezoning of the Marshall parcel from one-family residence to "C-2-H," a comprehensive general commercial category with highway frontage, was sought from the planning commission, which finally decided by 5-1 vote to rezone both boatel and Marshall properties "H-1," limited roadside business more restrictive than C-2-H.

Whitney said the planning commission with Felix M. Warburg as sole dissenter had "voted hastily." Planning director B. D. Dobbs, accused by Marshall of having executed a "right-about-face," said he'd expected continuation until nex week when another controversial Inverness area item will reach the supervisors.

Ludy finally demanded a roll-call on his motion to rezone, seconded by Supervisor William A. Gnoss. After unanimous vote of the three present, acting chairman William D. Fusselman said, "I agree with Mr. Ludy, that even if the West Marin Master Plan were completed there could be no other possible use for this property."

County's Planning Commissions To Set Up Project Priority List

Representatives of planning commissions in Marin County will meet at 8 p.m. May 7 in the spervisors' chamber of the Civic Center to set up a list of most important planning projects throughout the county and discuss their financing.

This decision was taken during a discussion session of the Marin County Planning Council last night after San Rafael Mayor John F. McInnis had described planning projects of the Assn. of Bay Area Governments, of which he is president.

McInnis stressed the need for coordination between county and regional planning, suggesting that while the Bay Area group approaching matters from the large view it was essential that there be a corresponding get-together among planners of the cities and the county.

Felix M. Warburg, member of the county planning commission and president of the planning council, said McInnis's admonitions stirred the group to subsequent decision that each member would immediately cause his own commission to make up a priority list of items within its area but of countywide import.

With these lists prepared, it was felt that the next meeting of the council could sift the information and agree on what should be done. Warburg said that on a basis of the top-priority list the council might appeal for financial or planning aid from the county, failing which it might be possible to get help from the state or a foundation.

"If we get together voluntarily on plans for Marin County," said Warburg, "we won't have to let the state come in and lay down such matters as where our highways are to be."

Bermuda Palms Not Burglarized

Two burglaries reported at the Bermuda Palms Motel, 737 Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, on Sunday turned out not to be burglaries, owner Irving B. Litchfield reported to San Rafael police yesterday.

Two lamps and a table were returned to the motel day room by a patron who said he took them only as a joke, Litchfield said. A snare drum and two cymbals, reported stolen, were only taken home by their rightful owner.

Quads Given Names; All With Marie

LIMA, Ohio (AP) — Lima's quadruplets were named today, in the order of their birth—Susan Marie, Anna Marie, Rita Marie and Julia Marie.

The parents, Barbara and Phillip Axe, said the "Marie" in the names was selected, in part, because that is the name of both the maternal and paternal grandmothers.

Axe, an advertising executive on the Lima Citizen, planned to pass out the traditional cigars today—all donated by a local cigar corporation.

Meanwhile, the children's pediatrician, Dr. C. J. Stechschulte, said the quads "are generally in good condition today." He added in a medical report: "There has been an expected weight loss in all the children, but certainly not excessive."

Their mother got out of her hospital bed for the first time this morning, and had her first look at the babies since birth. Under local anaesthetic, Mrs. Axe, 26, was able to see everything that went on at the births and was shown each child at that time. She is a former nurse.

Adventists Group Re-Elects President

SANTA CRUZ (AP) — D. E. Venden of San Jose, president of the Central California conference of Seventh-day Adventists eight years, was re-elected yesterday.

R. L. Stretter, also of San Jose was re-elected secretary-treasurer.

Pizza Cheese Gains Popularity In U.S.

NEW YORK (UPI)—The burgeoning popularity of pizza has shot up the consumption of Italian-type cheese.

Sales of this type cheese has soared 40 per cent in five years to about 180 million pounds a year. Nearly 90 per cent of Italian-type cheeses are made in this country.

The act of July 9, 1918, created the Distinguished Service Cross and the Silver Star decorations of the USA.

INCOME TAX FACTS

What Charitable Gifts Deductible?

By PETER J. WIKEL, C.P.A.

Your federal charitable contributions are deductible up to 30 per cent of your adjusted gross income provided that at least 10 per cent is to churches, educational institutions or tax-exempt hospitals. Otherwise, your contributions are deductible up to 20 per cent of your adjusted gross income.

P. J. Wikel

Contributions, to be deductible for 1962, must have been paid in 1962. It is not enough to have pledged to contribute at a later date. Payment must have been made in 1962.

Payments in money or property are equally deductible. If a contribution was made in property, the amount of the deduction is the fair market value of the property at the time the contribution was made.

All forms of property may be contributed—stocks, bonds, automobiles, furniture, fixtures, equipment, clothing, etc.

To be deductible, your contributions must be to a religious, charitable, educational, scientific or literary organization; or an organization for the prevention of cruelty to children or animals, except when such organization is operated for personal profit or to conduct propaganda or attempt to influence legislation.

Also deductible are gifts to fraternal organizations if they are to be used for charitable or religious purposes.

Also deductible are gifts to non-profit veterans organizations and gifts to the United States, a state, a territory, a possession of the United States, or any political subdivision of the foregoing or the United States, or the District of Columbia, but only if the contribution or gift is made for exclusively public purposes.

Contributions to political organizations are not deductible on the federal return, but they are on the California, to a limit of $100 on a separate return, and $200 on a joint return.

Pet Monkey Still Missing

A little pet monkey ran away from home in Homestead Valley last night and was still missing today.

Mrs. John Halverson of 12 Park Way said the pet monkey is about 18 inches tall and answers to the name "Jimmy." He is 14 or 15 months old, is very friendly and will not bite.

The Halversons and Jimmy just moved to Homestead Valley from Petaluma. The strange surroundings may have caused Jimmy to leave home, Mrs. Halverson theorized.

Job At Hamilton

Applications are being accepted by the U.S. Civil Service Commission in San Francisco for the position of military personnel clerk, salary $4,565 per year, at Hamilton Air Force Base. Forms are available at any postoffice or from the commission office at 630 Sansome Street, San Francisco.

Street Cars Are On Way Out Down Under

MELBOURNE, Australia (AP) —Trams (street cars) seem to be on the way out in Australia. They have been scrapped in the capital cities of Sydney, Perth and Hobart.

Only one line operates in Adelaide, but there are several routes in the cities of Melbourne and Brisbane.

SARATOGA (AP)—Nine World War I recruiting posters were stolen from a display room.

Cleanup Day Set April 20 In Fairfax

The Fairfax Park and Recreation Commission board last night agreed to a cleanup day in Fairfax to be held on April 20.

The cleanup day was proposed by Mrs. Dorothy Olsen, organizer of the Fairfax Community Conservation Study Group. Board member Helen Youngclaus will ask 4-H Clubs and other youth organizations for cooperation.

The commission decided to withhold its decision on a summer recreation program until director Ronald C. Samet outlines his plans at a meeting in the Manor School next Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Bank President Shot To Death

PARIS (AP) — The president of a Paris bank was shot to death today as he sat in the back seat of his parked sedan.

Henri Lafond, 68, was cut down by six shots fired at point-blank range by a lone gunman who escaped, police said. He died in an ambulance taking him to a hospital.

Police said Lafond and his chauffeur had just pulled up in front of a bank in the fashionable Paris suburb of Neuilly when a gunman opened the door, pulled a pistol from his pocket and fired.

Police said they had no clue to the motive for the daring daylight slaying.

Artist Shows Work

Jose Moya del Pino of Larkspur is one of 10 artists exhibiting paintings in the exhibit, "Then and Now," at the San Francisco Art Institute gallery, 800 Chestnut Street, San Francicso, through March 22. The paintings were chosen from past exhibits at the institute.

Shot Out Lights

BURNEY (AP)—A hunter shot a 60,000 volt line apart and the town of Burney was without electricity for 12 hours.

On Oregon Roads

SALEM, Ore. (AP) — Oregon registered 1,029,943 motor vehicles in 1962, the first time the million mark had been topped.

Keaton Files Complaint To Collect Fees For Estates

Coroner-Public Administrator Frank J. Keaton went to court yesterday to collect fees from estates he administered before the end of last year.

Keaton, represented by attorneys Gardiner, Riede and Elliott, filed the complaint in Marin Superior Court.

Since he was first elected in 1951, Keaton has been getting fees from each estate he handled. But this was changed when the county supervisors passed an ordinance in February last year, setting a $735 per month salary for Keaton.

The ordinance provides that all fees be turned over to the county.

Keaton contends that he is entitled to get fees for all estates for which he was appointed administrator prior to Jan. 1 this year. He lists 17 such estates, for which the total fees would come to about $4,500, according to the county auditor.

Auditor Michael Mitchell told county supervisors yesterday he cannot, under the law, issue warrants for further fees to be paid to Keaton.

Keaton's contention is that since he is elected every four years, and since his new four-year term started this year, he is entitled to fees for estates he handled during his previous term.

Junior ROTC Gets Reprieve For One Year

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Defense Department today bowed to congressional pressure and agreed to continue the high school ROTC program for another year.

Defense Secretary Robert S. McNamara had proposed earlier that military support for the program, involving 60,000 pupils at 255 public and private schools, should be cut off this July.

However, top members of the House armed services committee, including Chairman Carl Vinson (D-Ga.), announced their support for new legislation which would expand the program to include half a million youngsters at 2,000 high schools.

The Defense Department about face was announced today by Assistant Defense Secretary Norman S. Paul at the first hearing of a House armed services subcommittee investigation into the junior ROTC program.

The announcement came after Chairman F. Edward Hebert (D-La.) had opened the session with a blistering statement accusing the Defense Department of a "misguided sense of economy" in proposing originally to withdraw its support of the high school ROTC program.

"I am utterly amazed at this sudden cynical and short-sighted repudiation of a program which has provided the country with inestimable benefits for almost half a century," he declared.

Hebert said the Army seemed to think "that since junior ROTC graduates are neither commissioned nor recruited directly into the Army, the program does not directly contribute to the Army's military effort and, consequently, is not justified."

Boats, Harbor Unit Backs Funds Bill

A proposal for increased allocations from the California motor vehicle fuel fund to the small craft harbor revolving fund has received the endorsement of Marin County's recently formed boats and harbors committee.

The committee has passed a resolution supporting Assembly Bill 239,, now before the Ways and Means Committee, which would raise the present annual appropriation of $750,000 to approximately $2,400,000 in 1963.

The figure covers money expected in taxes on motor vehicle fuel used in propelling vessels, and which has not been claimed in refunds by boat owners and users.

Showdown Asked On Water Bonds

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Assemblyman Robert T. Monagan (R-Tracy) today demanded a legislative showdown on the Brown administration plan to help finance the state water project with bonds authorized 30 years ago.

Charging steamroller tactics, Monagan introduced a bill to rescind the authority of the Department of Water Resources to use 325 million dollars worth of bonds originally intended for the Central Valley Project.

The federal government finally built the CVP, and the bonds have been in mothballs ever since.

The California Water Commission last Friday approved the idea of adding the 325 million dollars to the 1.75 billion dollars in general obligation bonds okayed by California voters in 1960 to build the vast new state water system.

Gov. Edmund G. Brown warmly seconded the action.

William E. Warne, director of water resources, said the CVP bonds would save the state 67 million dollars in interest on the 1960 bonds and provide a cushion in case project costs go up.

Construction of Oroville Dam, the key unit, already is under way. The project eventually will transport surplus northern water all the way to San Diego and other arid sections of the state.

Monagan, in a statement, protested that the bonds have never been approved by either the people or the legislature for the Feather River Project.

Brown said yesterday the legislature had the opportunity to veto the revenue bond proposal in 1961 but took no action.

Monagan said the legislature might well agree to the revised financing plan, but that the bonds should not be touched until then.

"I object strongly to the extremely swift manner in which the California Water Commission gave blanket approval to this financing change," he said.

"The commission's unusually abrupt action gives credence to the rumors that the department intends to 'steamroller' this plan through without legislative approval, real public knowledge, and little chance for water and power contractors under the state plan to be aware of all of its ramifications."

Livestock Show Being Planned

Future Farmer and 4-H Club livestock and home exhibits, a parade, a western dance, and a chicken barbecue will make up the 14th annual West Marin Junior Livestock Show, to be held June 22 and 23 at Point Reyes Station.

Planning of the event was begun last week by the sponsoring West Marin Lions Club. The show, proceeds of which will be used for the development of the West Marin Community Center, will be held at the center. Charles Denman is chairman.

A queen of the livestock show will be crowned at the dance on the night of June 22. The barbecue will follow the parade on June 23.

School Building Unit Will Sue Betts Over Park Land Bond Use

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown has brought up a second complicated and controversial plan to turn an old, almost forgotten bond authorization into ready cash for urgent needs.

This time, he asks authority to sell 20 million dollars in 1952 school construction bonds in order to buy beach and park lands. He says it's necessary because the lands will be snapped up by private developers if the state doesn't buy them quickly.

Like the administration's proposal to use 325 million dollars in 1933 bonds to shore up Feather River Project financing, the park proposal is expected to meet opposition.

The State School Building Finance Committee, headed by Brown, approved the plan 4-1 yesterday.

It was proposed by Finance Director Hale Champion, vice-chairman of the commission. He acted under a 1958 law which he claims allows him to seek sale of the old bonds.

Brown, Champion, Controller Alan Cranston and Superintendent of Public Instruction Max Rafferty voted for it.

It was opposed by State Theasurer Bert Betts, who said there are differing legal opinions about whether it can be done. He said until the air is cleared, the bonds might not be salable, or the interest rate might be too high.

The committee agreed to submit to a court test by suing Betts to require him to sell the bonds—a process that will take several months to settle.

DECISION DELAYED ON SHERIFF'S CAR

Decision on what kind of a car should be used by Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos was deferred by county supervisors yesterday until after a special meeting at 9:30 a.m. Monday for consideration of overall county vehicle policy.

Bids had been called for a new car to replace the sheriff's present transport, a 1955 Buick sedan, as well as for a tilt-cab truck. Rossi Garage Inc. won the latter contract on a low bid of $3,352.94 including a trade-in at $200.

But Administrator Alan Bruce recommended delay on replacement of Mountanos's car because of impending consideration of a long report on county vehicles prepared by Asst. Administrator John F. Barrows. This report will recommend, said Bruce, that such officials as the sheriff henceforth content themselves with "top-of-line cars in the Ford-Chevrolet category," whereas the bid invitations stipulated Pontiac-Oldsmobile category.

The New York State Thruway system comprises about 3,000 miles of single lane pavement—enough for a road from New York City to San Francisco.

Seven Marin Youths Enlist In Air Force

Seven Marin County youths are taking basic training at Lackland Air Force Base, Tex., after enlisting in the Air Force through the San Rafael recruiting office during February.

They are: John J. Sea of 138 Tunstead Avenue, San Anselmo; Wayne L. Day of 325 Tamalpais Drive, Corte Madera; Craig D. Campbell of 21 Hickory Avenue, Corte Madera; Gwynn N. Williams of 28 Plaza Drive, Alto; Gerald W. LaPorta of 42 Meadow Road, Mill Valley; John C. Robb of 291 Oak Crest Road, San Anselmo, and James M. Kelly of 221 Bolling Drive, Hamilton Air Force Base.

Savings, Loan Branch Decision Due

James M. Laurent, assistant state savings and loan commissioner, told representatives of the Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. yesterday that a decision on their application for a branch office in Santa Rosa would be announced sometime prior to June 28.

The Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn. of San Anselmo is one of four seeking a state permit for a Santa Rosa office. Three representatives of the Marin firm testified before Laurent at a hearing in San Francisco yesterday.

Dr. Earle Young, president of Ross Valley, said there were only two protests to the application. These came from Silverado Savings and Loan Assn. of Napa and Summit Savings and Loan Assn. of Santa Rosa.

Other firms applying for the Santa Rosa permit are Santa Rosa Savings and Loan Assn., Redwood Savings and Loan Assn. of Petaluma, and a newly formed group of Sonoma County businessmen.

"The hearing officer will either deny all applications or award the permit to one of us," Dr. Young said.

Others testifying for the Marin firm yesterday were San Anselmo attorney Lawrence E. Wright, a member of the board of directors, and Claudia Goldthwaite, vice president and controller.

It was Ross Valley Savings and Loan Assn.'s second application in recent weeks for a branch office. Officials of the firm are still waiting a decision on their request for a permit for an office in Richmond. Hearing on this application was held in San Francisco Feb. 8.

Dakota Reunion

Alumni of the University of North Dakota will attend an annual reunion banquet Friday at 6 p.m. at DiMaggio's restaurant on San Francisco's Fisherman's Wharf, it was announced today by Sam Meblin of 355 Las Colindas Road, Terra Linda, president of the Northern California alumni chapter.

Music Chest Meet

Members of the Marin Music Chest Artistic Council will meet at 1:30 p.m., March 14, at Angelico Hall, Dominican College, San Rafael, to discuss players available for the 1963 summer concert season, Mrs. Samuel Archibald, chest president, announced today.

GRINS, BUT CAN'T BEAR IT—Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko grins and puts his fingers in his ears as he called a halt to a news conference yesterday in Oslo. After being questioned for three-quarters of an hour by 50 newsmen, Gromyko finally grinned and said: "Gentlemen, please, remember I am due at dinner shortly." He is on a one week visit to Norway. Scout, Cub Decorating Awards Due

Boy Scout troops and Cub Scout packs that took top honors in the annual window decorating contest last month sponsored by Marin Lodge 1327, B'nai B'rith, will receive their awards from former football Coach Eddie Erdelatz in San Rafael tomorrow night.

Erdeltaz, now working for a San Rafael title company, will present the awards at 7:30 p.m. at the Marin Jewish Community Center, 1618 Mission Avenue.

The window decorating contest, run in connection with Boy Scout Week each year, was divided into competition in three districts.

In the Southern District, winners were Troop 34 of Mill Valley and Pack 40 of Tamalpais Valley. In the Redwood District, winners were Pack and Troop 50 of San Anselmo and Pack 80 of Corte Madera. In the Miwok District, winners were Troop 18 and Pack 30, both of San Rafael.

Nearly 14 per cent of all U.S. workers revealed in the 1960 census that their place of work was outside the county in which they made their home.

Party Labels Hit By Marin Board

Marin County supervisors and all elected officials of the county yesterday flatly declared they are against a legislative proposal to require political party designations on ballots for city and county offices.

The board passed a resolution protesting Assembly bill 284, saying it would destroy "home rule of a non-partisan character." Auditor Michael Mitchell said the partisan identification of local elected officials could lead to charges that "a Republican administrator hired only Republican employees." He said he and all other elected county officers are opposed to the bill, submitted by Assemblyman Phillip Burton (D-San Francisco).

Assessor Bert W. Broemmel said party labels would "lower the level of local government."

He added, "party politics exist at the local level in the Deep South, and you have only to look there to see what can happen.

"Assessors in some Eastern states run on party tickets, and they become political payoff men for party commitments, through illegally reduced assessments. It can be a sorry mess. As a non-partisan in office, I've had no pressures, and I'd hate to have them."

Holland Society Elects Marinites

Two Marinites head the slate of officers just elected to the Holland America Society of California.

J. N. van Houten of Ignacio was re-elected president, with J. J. van der Ploeg of Mill Valley chosen as vice president. Other officers are P. J. van der Tuuk, secretary; David Koetser, treasurer, and Gerard Schimmel, A. G. van Nynatten and N. C. Hocke, directors.

Tony's Fairfax Garage Is Sold

Tony's Fairfax Garage, 1812 Francis Drake Boulevard, Fairfax, has been sold by Anthony Costello, 41 Elm Avenue, San Rafael, to Attilio (Babe) De Maestri of 132 Suffield Avenue, San Anselmo.

De Maestri said he will continue to run it under the same name and will also keep the De Maestri City Limits Garage, 1583 Sir Francis Drake Boulevard which he has had for 32 years. His son Edward will supervise the latter business.

Costello is retiring after 18 years at Tony's Fairfax Garage and said he will spend his time "hunting, fishing and loafing."

Marin Asked To Drop Dumps

Having recently authorized purchase of a new tractor for the county dump in Larkspur, Marin County supervisors were startled yesterday to receive a proposal that they go out of the dump business.

A letter from Key-Link Corp., signed by M. J. Lamperti of San Rafael as president, suggested the firm would like to take over the dump operation.

This, said the letter, would let private operation replace government operation in a field suited to such change

"We'll net over $5,000 from the dump operation during the next year even with an additional man and purchase of a tractor," protested public works director Donald R. Frost.

Supervisor William D. Fusselman said he had formerly taken a dim view of county operation of the dump but of late "I've reversed my thinking" and felt that this was a late date to make a change. Supervisor William A. Gnoss agreed there was no good reason for a change.

But Frost said he would check further.

The number of working women has increased from 16.5 million to 22.5 million the last 10 years. The proportion of married women working outside their homes has risen from 22 to 31 per cent during the decade.

MARIN FIRE CALLS

YESTERDAY:

12:46 p.m., San Rafael—Burned-out motor in freezer in home of James Magliulo of 123 Solano Street.

1:08 p.m., Tamalpais — Fire, caused short circuit in battery, in county dump truck at Tamalpais Junction; driver Bill Lord extinguished with dirt.

9:30 p.m., Corte Madera — Hot fireplace ashes melted plastic garbage can in garage at home of G. Guest, 21 El Camino Drive, setting fire to rags and paper; no damage.

The bulk of the nation's colored roof rock is produced and used in the seven southern counties of California.

Novato Teachers Optimistic On Raise

The Novato Unified School District board received a report last night on a schedule for increased teachers' salaries and expressed pleasure at the "scientific" method used.

John Irwin, chairman of the teachers' salary committee, said the teachers were "very optimistic this year" about raises, because of an expected 20 per cent increase in assessed valuation of the district.

The proposed schedule has five classes based on 15 units of study. There is a low of nine and a high of 13 steps.

The present salary schedule has four classes based on 20 units of study, with a low of 10 and a high of 13 steps. Salaries range from $4,740 to $9,150.

Board member Marett Boissevain termed the proposed schedule "The best approach I've seen. It's a real step in the right direction."

Earl Marshall suggested two schedules, one for teachers without tenure and one for teachers with tenure. He said negotiations could be made on an individual basis.

Supt. James G. Bunker differed with Marshall, saying that salaries for new teachers would need to be relatively high to attract them to the district.

Later Bunker said "perhaps 10 per cent" would be a more reasonable guess at the increase" of the valuation increase. He suggested that action on salaries be held up until June when the budget picture would be clearer.

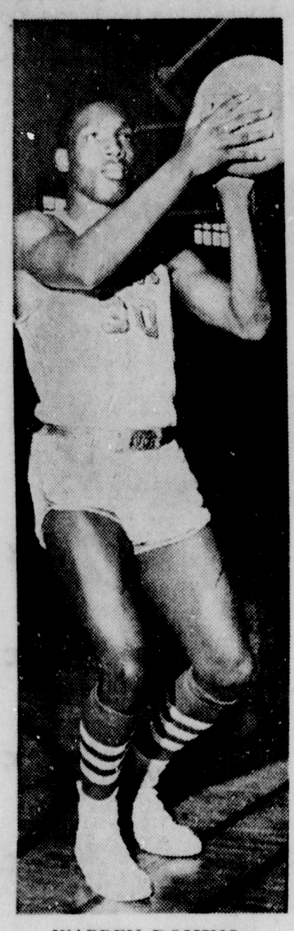
Tamalpais Cagers To Leave For Sacramento Tourney

Tamalpais High School's Marin Athletic League champion cagers will leave Mill Valley tomorrow for the start of the Camellia Basketball Tournament in Sacramento.

Twelve cagers and three managers will make the trip, along with coach Ed Chavez. They will leave at 11 a.m. for the tournament, which will include seven other teams. The tourney will be a consolation type, with each team entered playing three games.



WARREN DOMINO

The pairings were not to be made until late today, but the Indians will play their first game tomorrow night at 8 o'clock. If they win, they will play in a semi-final game at 9:30 p.m. Friday, and if they lose, they will play Friday at 6 p.m.

Last game for the Indians will be on Saturday.

BENCH STRENGTH

Chavez will be sticking to his bread and butter starting five in the tournament but reports more bench strength than he had during the MCAL season.

Starting at center will be Art Foster, starting forwards will be Jim Durbin and Ellis Williams and starting guards will be Warren Domino and Art Ford.

Foster and Domino were selected on the All-Marin Athletic League first team by the coaches of the league Monday night. Ford was placed on the second team and Jim Durbin was selected for honorable mention.

Chavez said guard Bill Gillingham and forward Bill Nelson have looked impressive in the past week's drills. Nelson has been hampered all season by injuries and Gillingham has been sidelined with a hurt knee suffered in football while quarterbacking the runner-up Indian football team.

Title Camps Are Studies In Contrast

MIAMI, Fla. (AP)—The training camp of the fighters getting ready for the heavyweight title match April 10 is a study in contrast.

Champion Sonny Liston lounged on the beach of a resort hotel, resting his twisted knee.

Challenger Floyd Patterson plugged through a daylong workout that sweated off five pounds in the privacy of Tropical Park race track.

Liston's adviser, Jack Nilon, said the champion would get back to training in a couple of days and be ready for the once-postponed fight. Liston has worked out only four times and sparred only once.

Patterson, who drove 32 hours non-stop to Miami over the weekend, went into his first workout Monday with a vengeance. He started at dawn with five miles of sogging and continued through a two-hour afternoon round with a sparring partner and the bags.

He sparred three rounds with Ray Lopez, a 6-foot-3, 225-pound Cuban, staggering him in the first two rounds and leaving him groggy with body punches in the third.

Patterson's trainer, Dan Florio, said that Patterson looked good, too good. Florio said he was afraid that Patterson was nearing his peak, although the rematch is still more than a month away.

Kent, Ross Win Basketball Tilts

Kent School won over Henry C. Hall School 34-17 and Ross dropped Reed 41-26 in opening round games of the Redwood Recreation District cage tournament yesterday in the Redwood High School gym.

High point men were Stan Tobiason with 19 for Kent and Barry Stockwell with six for Hall, and Tom Rayburn with 12 for Ross and Bill Bunker with 12 for Reed.

Nicklaus Withdraws From Golf Tourney

PENSACOLA, Fla. (AP) — A physician's advice has prompted Jack Nicklaus, one of golfdom's current Big Three, to withdraw from the $25,000 Pensacola Open golf tournament starting tomorrow.

Nicklaus notified officials Tuesday that his physician had called him back to Columbus, Ohio, for further treatment of the bursitis that has been hampering his play since the start of the winter tour.

The diabetes death rate has varied but little in the past few years, fluctuating about the level of 15 per 100,000.

Mariners Fall To Fresno 'Giants'

The College of Marin cagers outscored Fresno City College in the second half last night but were overwhelmed in the first half as the Mariners went down to defeat, 79-60.

The basketballers of Fresno were giants compared to the fighting but outmanned Tars. Although being down by 21 points in the first half, 48-27, the Mariners outscored Fresno 33-31 in the second half.

"The spirit was willing but the team was sapped from the overtime game the night before," commented coach Cal Riemcke after the game. College of Marin edged Shasta 74-73 Monday night to win the championship of the Golden Valley Conference.

Last night's game with Fresno, winners of the Valley Conference, was to determine the team which will compete in the state tournament which starts tomorrow in Sacramento.

The Fresno front line, consisting of 6-7 center Dick Hughey, and forwards Paul Turney (6-6) and Jim Loyear (6-6) proved too tall for the Mariners to cope with.

Riemcke put in his tallest front line he could muster, center Pete Bardea (6-4), and forwards Mike Kavanagh (6-3) and Randy Petrini (6-2). That's a pretty big height disadvantage.

"I am real proud of our kids," said Riemcke. "They tried as hard as they could. This has been the best school spirit we have had since I have been here."

And in the six years Cal has been coaching the Tar cagers, they have won five conference titles. Last year was the only year the Mariners did not win the conference, but they finished in second place. Now that's a record!

The Tar cagers perked up when the rooters from Marin arrived. Two busloads of boosters arrived just before the first half ended, and it helped. There were 2,000 screaming fans from Fresno, which was another advantage for the home towners.

Riemcke credited Bardea for a fine job on the boards in the second half as he led the Mariner rebounders.

High point man for the Tars was Brad Busch who played an outstanding game and tallied 19 points on nine buckets and a free throw. Dave Neumann scored 17 points.

College of Marin scoring: Charlie Bullock, 1-3-5; Brad Busch, 9-1-19; Dave Neumann, 7-3-17; Pete Bardea, 1-3-5; Steve Bryant, 1-2-4; Mike Kavanagh, 2-2-6; Randy Petrini, 2-0-4. Totals 23-14—60.

Fresno scoring: Hicks, 4-2-10; Turney, 7-4-18; Hughey, 7-3-17; Loyear, 8-2-18; Mazzoni, 4-2-10; Monreal, 1-0-2; Hayes, 1-1-3; Allard, 0-1-1. Totals 32-15—79.

'PEACEMAKER'

Wilt Puts Halt To Wild Brawl

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

NEW YORK (AP) — Wilt the Stilt is Wilt the Peacemaker today and if that's peace, a couple of bruised fellows named Bailey Howell and Walter Dukes want no part of it.

Wilt Chamberlain, the 7-foot-1, 250-pound scoring machine of the San Francisco Warriors, turned peacemaker according to all on-the-spot battleground testimony during a brawling National Basketball Assn. game between San Francisco and the Detroit Pistons at Madison Square Garden last night.

He played it like a barroom bouncer, tossing 6-foot-7 Howell halfway across the court and throwing Dukes, a 7-footer, into a group of fans at the sidelines.

"I thought he was fighting," said Dave DeBusschere of the Pistons. "But then I realized he broke it up," he added, referring to the fight, not to the section of the Garden floor where Howell and Dukes landed.

"He was a real peacemaker out there," said Detroit's Ray Scott in admiration.

The fight began in the closing seconds of the third quarter of the game between two teams battling for the third and last playoff berth in the league's Western Division. Although the Warriors and Wilt might have won the fight, the Pistons won the game 111-102 and took a one-length lead over San Francisco. Detroit has five games left; San Francisco, seven.

The trouble was triggered by Al Attles of San Francisco, a close buddy of Chamberlain's, and Bob Ferry of Detroit, who lost a midcourt points decision to Chamberlain in a fight in San Francisco earlier this season. Ferry grabbed Attles or Attles tacked Ferry, depending on which one you talked to. Both agreed that Attles flipped Ferry over his shoulder, and jumped on him.

Enter the hero, the same Chamberlain who usually gets tabbed as the villain whether he's scoring 60 points or barking at the referees.

In the other NBA fights—er—games, Syracuse clinched second place in the Eastern Division, whipping the New York Knicks 131-121 in the second game of the Garden doubleheader behind 31 points from Hal Greer and 26 from John Kerr, and Chicago whipped St. Louis at Chicago 116-93 as Walt Bellamy scored 27 points and Terry Dischinger 24. The Hawks played without Bob Pettit, who had influenza.

Juan, Orlando Still Miles From Giants

PHOENIX, Ariz. (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants and holdouts Orlando Cepeda and Juan Marichal are about as far apart financially as they are geographically, according to vice president Chub Feeney.

"I have talked with Cepeda for the second time in the last 16 hours and he again refused to agree to terms," Feeney said yesterday. "We are, however, a little closer than we were."

The case of Marichal was more disturbing. The Giants thought he was on the way to camp with the second contract sent to him in his pocket. Instead, the second contract turned up in the mail yesterday—very much unsigned.

Feeney said he will talk to Marichal by phone and try to at least get him here to negotiate in person. In addition, the big right hander from the Dominican Republic must pay a $250 fine for playing in unauthorized exhibition games this winter before he can begin his workouts.

Nobody was quoting any figures, but the Giants were believed to have upped their offer to Cepeda from $42,000 to the over $45,000 he earned last year. He wants more.

Marichal made $15,000 last year. He reportedly wants twice that while the Giants are offering around $23,000.

On the field yesterday, the Giants held a routine workout.

Matty Alou was sidelined by a cold and Billy Hoeft was still able to take only light workouts with his shoulder heavily bandaged.

Bobby Bolin, taking his first workout since coming out of the Army, brought smiles to himself and the Giant coaching brigade by finding the strike zone with about every toss.

Boxing Triple-Card Opponents Together

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The six men who battle March 16 in a triple boxing championship fight met for the first time under the same roof yesterday and Cuban welterweight challenger Luis Rodriguez emerged the champion—at least in talking.

Champion Emile Griffith was shy and modest while answering questions at the press conference luncheon, but Rodriguez was outspoken and gay.

Roberto Cruz of the Philippines was the last of the participants in the three title fights to arrive. He meets Battling Torres of Mexico for the vacated junior welterweight crown.

The other twosome is made up of featherweight champion Davey Moore, the only U.S. boxer on the program of championship fights, who defends his crown against Cuban Sugar Ramos, the top challenger in that division.

Rodriguez accused Griffith of "running away" from him since their first meeting in which the champion won a split decision.

"I told Griffith I was going to try to knock him out," Rodriguez said. "There's nothing personal in that. It's my job to try to win and after the fight is over, we'll be good friends again."

But Griffith was unimpressed with Rodriguez' claims. He said he'd been knocked down only twice and got up both times to score knockouts.

"I can't stop Luis from saying he is going to knock me out," Griffith said. "We will see how much his talk means when we get in the ring."

Scanlon Wins Fresno Bout

FRESNO (AP) — Bobby Scanlon, 141½, scored a unanimous 10-round decision over Ben Medina, 141¾, of Fresno last night. It was Scanlon's fourth straight victory since he started a comeback.

There were no knockdowns.

Referee Frankie Carter of San Francisco scored it 8-0 for the winner from Buffalo, N.Y., who now fights out of Sacramento. Judge Bob Mitchell had it 8-1 and Judge Abe Cohan had it 6-1.

Scores Hole-In-One

Henry M. Tsuchiya of San Francisco scored a hole-in-one on the 150-yard, 8th hole at the Indian Valley golf course in Novato last Saturday, reported professional Norm Burns. He used a No. 5 iron.

John Pont Is New Yale Grid Coach

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale chose 35-year-old John Pont of Miami Ohio University today as its head football coach after a five week's search. He succeeds Jordan Olivar.

He was the unanimous choice, said Athletic Director DeLaney Kiphuth. "To a man," added Kiphuth "we are convinced that both his background and enthusiasm will assure the continuation of our proud football heritage."

Pont, a star halfback at Miami, served his alma mater as head football coach for seven years. His teams compiled a 43-21-2 record. The Redskins won the Mid-American Conference championship for the third time last season with an 8-1-1 record that included a 10-7 triumph over Purdue, a Big-Ten opponent.

Olivar's resignation, which came as a surprise, ended an 11-year tenure at Yale and the most successful since the immortal Walter Camp. Pont is Yale's 31st coach since 1872.

The length of the contract and its terms were not announced immediately.

Tiburon Lab Reports On Sea Temperatures

Pacific coastal sea surface temperatures have been surveyed from Canada to Mexico by air to study their effect on game fish, the Tiburon Marine Laboratory reports.

The U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service laboratory said yesterday the first continuous airborne survey, a two-day flight with 27,000 observations by an infrared radiation thermometer, recorded temperatures ranging from 46 to 63 degrees Fahrenheit at the end of February.

An electronic detector measured the heat radiation from the ocean surface every two seconds. This was translated into surface water temperatures, which varied from 46 degrees offshore of the Columbia River mouth between Washington and Oregon to 63 degrees south of San Pedro, where steam plants at Los Alamitos empty into the ocean.

G. B. Talbot, laboratory director, said the aerial surveys at 800 to 1,000 feet will increase knowledge of the coastal marine environment and its relation to the abundance and distribution of game fish.

Sports Injuries Conference Set Saturday In S.R.

Dr. Arnold Nutting of San Rafael, chairman for the second annual Marin Sports Injury Conference scheduled Saturday at Dominic's Harbor Restaurant, San Rafael, said the general public is welcome to sit in on the day-long sessions.

"Some people feel this is just for sports officials and doctors," said Dr. Nutting, "but anyone interested is welcome."

He said registration fee of $8.50 per person covers the entire day's activities, including coffee and doughnuts in the morning, lunch and the evening dinner program. For those attending only the dinner meeting, the fee is $6. Reservations should be made with Dr. Nutting at 1540 Fourth Street, San Rafael.

Marin Medical Society and Marin Superintendent of Schools office, co-sponsors, hope for an attendance of more than 400 persons, said Dr. Nutting. The conference will open at 8 a.m. and conclude with the dinner session at 6:30 p.m.

MAIN SPEAKERS

Speakers will include Reverend Donn Moomaw of Berkeleyy, former UCLA All-America center; Captain Matt Hazeltine of the San Francisco 49ers; Dr. Harvey Williams, assistant professor, San Francisco State College; Mike Davlin, assistant football coach at Tamalpaias High School; Dr. Jerry Patmont, team physician of University of California; Connie Jarvis, trainer for Stanford University; Dr. Kenneth D. Rose of the Student Health Service, University of Nebraska;; Dr. Nutting, team physician for Redwood High School; Bob Troppmann, head football coach and athletic director at Redwood High; and Chuck Taylor, assistant athletic director of Stanford.

BOYS' SPORTS

A panel discussing organized competitive sports for young boys will be composed of Dr. Robert Albo of San Francisco; Larry Brink of Mill Valley, former Los Angeles Rams lineman; Ann Curtis Cuneo, former Olympic swimming champion; Bob Fitzhenry of the Drake High School physical education department and Dr. Roy Pinella, San Francisco pediatrician. Their session will start at 3:30 p.m.

The conference committee includes Doctors Nutting, Charles Nagel, Carl E. Schlichtmann, Fred T. Adams, Edward W. Cook, Rudy S. Kupfer, Virgil S. Hollis, Harry N. Hensler and Elmer A. Weden Jr. and Messrs. M. R. Convis, George Corson, Edward R. Credell, James Hanretty and Richard G. Read.

Santa Clara Leads WCAC Cage Race

By U.P. INTERNATIONAL

Santa Clara leads the West Coast Athletic Conference basketball race today, but USF gets a chance to tie things up tonight.

The Broncs made their mark 9-2 last night by bouncing hapless University of Pacific 79-62 at San Jose.

Gene Shields, an underrated performer who has sparked the Broncs' late-season surge, hit 22 points to lead Santa Clara.

Dick Davey had 20 for the losers, who have lost 11 straight WCAC games.

USF, which has an 8-2 mark, hosts San Jose State in action tonight.

Then on Saturday, Santa Clara is at USF in a showdown battle for all the marbles.

In other contests last night, Pepperdine clubbed Loyola 73-55, Diminutive Lee Tinsley had 19, Harry Dinnel 16 and Bob Warlick 15 to lead the Waves, who lost their first five WCAC games but ended with a 6-6 mark.

Pepperdine wound up with a 15-10 season mark, but still was a disappointment since the Waves were defending WCAC champs and acquitted themselves well in the Western Regional Tourney, with almost their entire team back.

Woman Golf Pro To Perform At Indian Valley

Carol Mann, a long-driving star in the women's professional golf tour, will conduct an exhibition at the Indian Valley Golf Club in Novato at 3 p.m. Friday, it was announced yesterday by Norm Burns, professional at the Novato course.

Miss Mann, who stands 6 feet 3 inches and weighs 155 pounds, has been a golf pro since 1960. Last year she tied for fourth place in the National Women's Open championship.

Friday she will display a variety of golf clubs and possibly play a few holes, said Burns. Miss Mann is a member of the Wilson Co. advisory staff.

Public is invited to the exhibition free of charge.

Candy Spots To Go To Florida

ARCADIA (AP)—Candy Spots, winner of last Saturday's Santa Anita Derby, will be flown to Florida soon after the Santa Anita meeting ends next Monday.

Trainer Mesh Tenney said yesterday that Candy Spots probably will run in the Florida Derby at Gulfstream March 30.

Candy Spots is regarded as California's top threat in the Kentucky Derby.

Golf Carnevale Set; Field Limited To 200

Entries are now being accepted for the third annual Italian Golf Carnevale, scheduled April 21, at Marin Golf and Country Club, Loma Verde, committeeman Sil DeMaestri announced today.

The field will be limited to 200 players, said DeMaestri, including 150 members of the Marin club and 50 guests. Entries will be accepted on a first come, first served basis and may be made at the Marin club's pro shop or with DeMaestri at the DeMaestri Distributing Co., 628 Lindaro Street, San Rafael.

The entry fee of $15 per player covers green fees, lunch and dinner.

DeMaestri said entrants will be required to wear a costume preferably but not necessarily of Italian theme. Several prizes will be awarded.

How Mails Helped Pierce

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Until I catch up with the Giants in Arizona this weekend, I'd like to give readers a little bit of low-down on spring training. There are many tear jerking stories that never make the news. And there's many a human interest yarn that likewise is hard to find in the papers.

One interesting observation comes to mind and concerns southpaw Billy Pierce. If you remember, it was about this time a year ago the 35-year-old veteran joined the Giants in a trade from the White Sox. Billy pitched into training like any other rookie. He ran and ran, around and around the park.

Finally one day Walter "The Great" Mails introduced himself to Pierce.

"Billy," Mails began, "I once was a southpaw pitcher."

"Oh, sure, I remember you," the pleasant Pierce was quick to say.

"Then would you mind if I gave you a little advice?"

Not at all, not at all," Pierce replied.

"Then quit running and start throwing," Mails said. "I'm sure your legs are in shape. But think of your arm. Get it in condition."

FROM THAT day on Pierce took the advice of Mails. He cut down on his running and concentrated on his throwing. For awhile he was thumped unmercifully but he just kept on throwing, harder and harder, disregarding the thumping he was getting each time out.

When the 1962 season started, Pierce was in shape. His arm and his legs were ready for the gruelling season. He's thanked Mails many times for his kindly observation and advice.

Mails is one of the two truly San Franciscans regularly employed by the Giants since they moved west. He is in charge of the speakers' bureau. The other is Jerry Donovan, general manager of Candlestick Park.

Donovan and Mails represent the last vestige of the old Pacific Coast League, long gone, but not forgotten.

Lefty O'Doul for a couple years was considered a "Giant adoptee." He survived the managerial reign of Bill Rigney and Tom Sheehan but was "rubbed out" when Alvin Dark became manager. O'Doul still tutors young Giant rookies in training camp.

Another landmark of the Coast League whose once bright shining star is fading is Frank Shellenback, in charge of pitching on minor league farm clubs.

Until Dark arrived "Shelly," like O'Doul, did his chore with the regulars. But the new policy of the Giants sent both O'Doul and "Shelly" to the rookies.

"After a player joins the parent club it is too late to teach him how to hit or how to pitch," Alvin explains, adding "O'Doul and Shelly are of greater benefit to me with the rookies."

So Lefty and Shelly commiserate with each other, remembering that the Yanks have Joe DiMaggio teaching hitters; the Rad Sox have Ted Williams instructing and correcting first squad hitters, and countless big league clubs are employing oldtime pitchers to teach the regular staff hurlers.

MARIN BUSINESS And INDUSTRY

By HARRY CRAFT

New Investment Advisory Firm Opens Offices In San Rafael

A new investment advisory firm, Mitchell, Morse and Schwab, has opened offices at 1010 B Street, San Rafael. Principals are D. W. Mitchell, a retired mutual fund executive living in Sonoma, and John S. Morse and Charles L. Schwab, previously with a Palo Alto investment counseling organization. Schwab recently moved to Fairfax.

The company also publishes "Investment Indicators," a monthly advisory service, along with quarterly comprehensive analysis of outstanding organizations. The publication has national circulation.

WITH NEAR COMPLETION of its contracts, the Dumont Manufacturing Corp. plant on Irwin Street, San Rafael, is scheduled to make its exit from the Marin County industrial scene and move the rest of its equipment to the Southern California factories of the H. I. Thompson Corp. — unless remaining employees are successful in doing something to forestall it. They'd like very much to take over and operate the plant themselves, going out and getting new contracts. Negotiations are in progress.

THE PROGRESSIVE MINDED Novato Chamber of Commerce not only turns out a neat monthly bulletin, but has come up with a complete directory of clubs, organizations and associations in the greater Novato area.

The directory includes listings of officials in the city offices, fire, police, water district, school districts as well as indexed listings of all the various fraternal, women's, veterans', political, drama, youth and miscellaneous organizations. Congratulations on a very fine job!

REMODELING at Leon C. Felton Co. salesrooms on Francisco Boulevard, San Rafael, now in progress will give indoor display space for used cars. Felton is converting the area formerly occupied by the service department which has been moved to Mills Street. The solid wall facing on Francisco Boulevard will be changed to glass. Completion is expected in about five weeks.

Incidentally, do you think you see more white Volkswagens than any other color? You probably do. National sales records show that white topped the list of customer color preference last year, with red, turquoise, blue, black, grey and green in declining order. Laurie Felton says black is the least chosen in Marin.

DID YOU KNOW THAT — Japan now manufactures almost three out of four sewing machines sold in the U.S.? America pushed the Japanese into it. During the postwar occupation Gen. Douglas MacArthur's advisors looked around for something to put idle armament plants to work and settled on sewing machines . . . California became the nation's top buyer of life insurance a year before becoming the most populous state. Areas where life insurance is growing faster than population are counties around but not including Los Angeles in the south, and Marin, San Mateo and Santa Clara counties in the north. But the state still ranks second to New York in total life insurance in force.

Burned-Out Family Gets Housing

The burned-out family of Mrs. Dorothy Jones and her six children has been housed temporarily in wartime units in Marin City, it was reported Monday to the Marin County Housing Authority Commission.

Cost of repairs to the apartment at 251 Drake Avenue, gutted by fire of undetermined origin Feb. 19, will be $10,000. It will take one month to six weeks to repair.

Eighteen over income families have been given notification in the low income project that they must make a decision about future relocation by April 1 or be subject to eviction, executive director Bert Klahn said. Of these, 14 families have indicated interest in buying or renting new construction units in Marin City.

There are 521 families residing in Marin City, a decrease of four since January.

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Department of Beaches and Parks acquired five acres of property for $730,770 in January, the department said.

Six Regional A.F. Hqs. Will Be Consolidated

The six regional headquarters of the Air Force Communications Service will be consolidated July 1 into three, one of which will be at Hamilton Air Force Base, it was announced today by AFCS commander Maj. Gen. Kenneth P. Berquist at Scott Air Force Base, Ill.

As a result, military and civilian personnel will be increased at the Western Communications Region at Hamilton, said Col. Guy H. Rockey, region commander at the Marin base. Some personnel will come from deactivated regions.

Air Force officials said the major organizational change was required by the growth in strength and responsibility of the communication service.

The other two new regional headquarters will be the Central Communications Region, Tinker Air Force Base, Okla., and the Eastern Communications Region, Westover Air Force Base, Mass. All three bases are existing regional headquarters.

To be deactivated are headquarters at Robbins Air Force Base, Ga.; Chanute Air Force Base, Ill., and Randolph Air Force Base, Tex.

2 New Cases Of TB In Marin County

Two new cases of tuberculosis, five of gonorrhea and two of syphilis were reported last week in Marin County by the health officer, Dr. Carolyn B. Albrecht.

The tuberculosis cases were in Mill Valley and Novato. Sausalito, Mill Valley, San Anselmo, Fairfax and San Rafael had one case each of gonorrhea, while Mill Valley and San Rafael each had a case of syphilis.

Other communicable diseases listed in the weekly report were eight cases of measles, nine mumps and 16 strep infections.

Stanford Group Honors Hoover

NEW YORK (AP) — Former President Herbert Hoover yesterday received a solid gold medal from the Stanford Alumni Assn. for more than 70 years of distinguished service to the university and the nation.

Guy R. Neely of Phoenix, Ariz., association president, presented the medal to the 88-year-old former chief executive in his Waldorf-Astoria Towers suite. Said Neely:

"All my fellow alumni express through me their love and admiration of an 'uncommon man' as I hand to you this highest expression of our gratitude, and say for them all, 'hail to the chief.' "

RAFFERTY TRADES CAD FOR BUICK

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Dr. Max Rafferty said yesterday that as an economy measure, he has returned to the Department of Finance the canary yellow 1962 Cadillac he inherited upon taking office.

"I see no reason to add to the taxpayers' burdens by having them pay for a chauffeur and a luxury automobile," the state superintendent of public instruction said in a press release.

To take its place, Rafferty requested and received a new 1963 Buick Riviera, which the manufacturer describes as a limited production luxury automobile.

Rafferty drives the Buick himself. His office said it is smaller than the Cadillac, cost $1,200 to $1,500 less, and will be cheaper to operate and maintain.

To Meet Rockefeller

David Fletcher, son of Mrs. Harold A. Fletcher of 41 Peninsula Road, Belvedere, is one of nine students at St. Lawrence University in Canton, N. Y., who will participate in a forum discussion on state government with New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller at Albany next Monday and Tuesday as feature of the school's state government seminar. Fletcher is a senior.

Los Angeles Ordered To Pay For Landslide

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The county was ordered to pay $3,939,336 in damages to landowners who incurred property loss in a massive landslide that started nearly seven years ago on the Palos Verdes Peninsula.

Superior Judge Philip H. Richards awarded the huge judgment to 76 individual homeowners and four incorporated firms who had filed suit against the county in 1957.

County officials indicated they would appeal the case immediately.

Judge Richards ruled in June 1961 after a three-month trial that the county was responsible for the landslide that started in August 1956.

The suit contended the county triggered the slide, blamed for demolishing 120 homes, by placing more than 200,000 cubic yards of fill material on top of an ancient slide area in extending Crenshaw Boulevard across the Palos Verdes hills to the ocean. The slide area covered an estimated 200 acres, and engineers say the earth is still moving at a rate of about a quarter-inch a day.

In addition to the judgment awarded, Judge Richards ruled the county must also pay 7 per cent retroactive interest on the principal. This would amount to approximately two million dollars and would continue to accrue at the rate of $1,200 a day until paid.

Largest single recipient of the judgment would be the partnership of Rancho Palos Verdes Corp. and Capitol Co., awarded a total of $1,159,500 for damages inflicted to 50 acres on their Portuguese Bend area property.

Private landowners would receive a total of $2,131,294.

McInnis, Jensen Petitions Complete

Two more candidates for San Rafael city office, Mayor John F. McInnis and Councilman Fred E. Jensen, returned their completed petitions to City Clerk W. L. Morgan yesterday.

McInnis so far is unopposed for the mayoralty. Jensen was the second to complete filing for city council, the first having been aspirant Lothar Salin. Councilman Charles W. Aby had not yet returned his completed petitions.

COME FOR SUNDAY supper and enjoy this tasty gourmet dish . . . Individual Casseroles of Crabmeat and Artichokes in a tasty cheese sauce. With it, a vegetable salad and, for dessert, Party Pink Souffle.

Tasty Gourmet Dish For No-Meat Days

Menu planners, especially those who must take into account Lent's no-meat days, will welcome this tasty gourmet dish . . . "Individual Casseroles of Crabmeat and Artichokes" in a tasty cheese sauce. With it, serve a mixed vegetable salad sprinkled with Cheese-Nips crackers. For dessert . . . "Party Pink Souffle."

INDIVIDUAL CASSEROLES OF CRABMEAT AND ARTICHOKES

- ¼ cup butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons minced onion
- 2½ tablespoons flour
- 1 teaspoon dry mustard
- ½ teaspoon salt
- 1½ cups milk
- 2 teaspoons lemon juice
- ¾ teaspoon Worcestershire sauce
- ¼ cup chopped pimiento
- Dash paprika
- 2 7½-ounce cans crabmeat, drained and flaked
- 1 8-ounce can artichoke hearts, drained
- ½ cup grated Cheddar cheese
- ¼ cup crushed wafers

Heat butter or margarine in a saucepan, add the onion and cook until tender. Stir in flour, mustard and salt. Slowly add Milk. Cook, stirring over medium heat until mixture comes to a boil; remove from heat and add next four ingredients. Arrange the crabmeat and artichoke hearts in four greased individual casseroles (or a greased 1-quart casserole). Pour sauce over. Combine cheese and wafer crumbs. Sprinkle on top. Bake in a moderately hot oven (375°F.) 20-25 minutes, or until cheese is melted and sauce is bubbling hot. Makes four servings.

NOTE: May be prepared ahead of time and refrigerated until required.

PARTY PINK SOUFFLE

- 12 graham crackers, finely rolled (about 1 cup crumbs)
- 2 tablespoons butter or margarine
- 2 tablespoons sugar
- 2 3-ounce packages raspberry-flavored gelatin
- 1 cup hot water
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 1 6-ounce can frozen orange juice concentrate, thawed
- 1 cup water
- 3 egg whites, room temperature
- ⅛ teaspoon salt
- ¼ cup sugar
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped

Place a double band of waxed paper around the outside of a 1½-quart souffle dish allowing it to come 3-inches above the rim of the dish. Combine graham cracker crumbs, butter or margarine and sugar. Mix well. Reserve some of this mixture for top and sides of souffle. Press remainder into bottom of dish. Chill. Dissolve gelatin in hot water, add lemon juice. Add water to orange juice, combine with gelatin mixture. Chill till partially set. Beat mixture until soft peaks form; fold in whipped cream. Add salt to egg whites, beat until soft peaks form. Add sugar gradually, beat until stiff. Fold whites into gelatin mixture. Gently pour into souffle dish. Refrigerate until set. Just before serving remove wax paper and garnish top with reserved crumbs. Makes eight servings.

Sherried Peanut Crunch Has Gelatin Pudding Base

A double-peanut flavor and creamy-crunch texture combine to create a most unusual pie. Sherried Peanut Crunch Pie has a rich gelatin-pudding base laced with honey and sweet California Sherry. Its flavor is repeated in the topping of coarsely crushed peanut brittle.

Here's another version. Make the pie filling as usual and spoon it into eight sherbet glasses lined with ladyfinger halves, if desired. flavor.

SHERRIED PEANUT CRUNCH PIE
(Makes 1 9-inch pie)

- 1 envelope plain gelatin
- ½ cup sweet Sherry Sherry
- 1 package vanilla pudding and pie filling mix
- 1½ cups milk
- ¼ cup honey
- 1 cup heavy cream, whipped
- 1 (9-inch) baked pie shell
- 1 cup coarsely crushed peanut brittle

Soften gelatin in the wine. Prepare pudding mix according to directions on package, using the 1½ cups milk as the liquid. Remove from heat; add softened gelatin and stir until dissolved. Add honey. Cool thoroughly, then fold in whipped cream. Pour into pie shell. Sprinkle peanut brittle evenly over top of pie; pat down gently with the palm of the hand. Chill several hours or overnight.

French Lenten Salad

If you've never served a Nicoise Salad, you may enjoy doing so for Lent.

This is the salad met everywhere in Paris, and worth adopting.

Larousse Gastronomique, the famous French dictionary of food that is now available in a fine English version, gives the ingredients for Salade Nicoise as potatoes, snap beans, anchovies, olives, capers and tomatoes dressed with oil, vinegar, salt and pepper, and sprinkled with the fresh herbs chervil and tarragon.

However, French cooks often change these ingredients and add lettuce, tuna and hard-cooked eggs, and specify that the olives used be the ripe variety. It's this latter version, with the anchovies and capers omitted, that is given in the following recipe.

Preface this American Nicoise Salad with a hot soup; serve French bread with both the soup and salad and you'll have a satisfying meal.

AMERICAN NICOISE SALAD

- 1 small head lettuce
- 2 cans (6½ or 7 ounces each) tuna (packed in vegetable oil)
- 1 cup cooked sliced potatoes
- 1 cup cooked cut snap beans
- 3 hard-cooked eggs (shelled and quartered)
- 3 small tomatoes (quartered)
- 1 small red onion (sliced thin and separated into rings)
- 12 ripe olives
- Salad Dressing

Shred the lettuce fine and place in a large shallow bowl Lift tuna from oil in large pieces and pile in center of bowl. Surround with a ring of potatoes and one of beans. Alternate egg and tomato quarters around beans. Garnish with onion rings and olives. If made ahead of serving time, cover eightly with saran and refrigerate. Just before serving (at the table) pour the Salad Dressing over all the ingredients and toss well. Makes 6 servings.

SALAD DRESSING

- ¾ teaspoon salt
- Dash of paprika
- ½ teaspoon monosodium glutamate
- ⅓ cup lemon juice or vinegar
- ⅔ cup salad oil

Add the salt, paprika and monosodium glutamate to the lemon juice; stir with a fork until dry ingredients are dissolved. Add oil; beat with the fork until blended.

SCALLOPS ESPAGNOLE

Scallops Are Versatile Shellfish

The Lenten season presents no menu problems to the housewife who is familiar with the versatile scallop. In recent years the popularity of this sucfish has grown by leaps and bounds with menu planners . . . and for several good reasons.

First of all, scallops seem to be an all-family seafood. Strong preferences and prejudices that sometime apply to other seafoods (even within the family circle) don't seem to apply to scallops. Nearly everybody likes them. Few people dislike them. And legion are those who grow ecstatic at their very mention.

Perhaps the reason for this is the scallop's delicate flavor. It is not fishy. Yet it has an unmistakable nutty tang that tells you it comes from the sea.

Secondly, the texture of the scallop meat is pleasing. Being a muscle of the mollusk (it opens and closes the scallop's shell), it is just firm enough to pleasantly resist the bite, yet tender enough to make the biting a pleasure.

Undoubtedly the biggest reason for the scallop's booming popularity is the endless variety of delightful ways they can be served. They can be broiled, baked or fried. They're delicious in casseroles, stews and chowders. Here's a recipe with a Spanish flavor that brings out the best in scallops:

SCALLOPS ESPAGNOLE

- 2 lbs. sea scallops, fresh or frozen
- 1 can (6 oz.) broiled mushroom crowns
- 1 cup thinly sliced celery
- ½ cup chopped onions
- ¼ cup vegetable oil
- ½ cup whole stuffed olives
- 1 pkg. (1 pkg. (10 oz.) frozen peas
- ½ teaspoon saffron
- ¼ teaspoon Tabasco
- 2 teaspoons salt
- 2 cans (12 oz. each) vegetable juice
- 1 pkg. (14 oz.) pre-cooked rice

Defrost scallops, if frozen. Drain mushrooms; save broth. Cook celery, onions and mushrooms in oil until celery and onions are soft but not brown. Add olives, peas, saffron, Tabasco and salt. Combine mushroom broth, vegetable juice and enough water to make 4 cups; add with scallops. Bring to boil. Add rice; toss until rice is well-moistened. Cover; simmer 10 minutes or until liquid is absorbed. Makes 8 servings.

Date Nibblers

Serve stuffed fresh California dates as party nibblers and salad garnishes. Snip dates along one side, remove pits and fill with apple-mint jelly, a strip of Cheddar cheese, a wedge of fruit or your favorite cream cheese spread.

Stuffed Cabbage Rolls Get Reception In All Countries

In at least half a dozen countries—France, Germany, Russia, Poland, Hungary and the United States—stuffed cabbage rolls get a warm welcome.

The French call this dish chou farci and prepare it by several methods. A popular way is to fold the large outer leaves of a cabbage (after blanching or cooking) around small rolls of meat, rice and seasonings. Then the cabbage and meat are given long slow moist cooking.

The Russians call the cabbage rolls Golubtsi, their word for pigeons. In this cuisine, after the rolls are cooked in a tomato sauce, sour cream is likely to be added to the gravy.

Our recipe for stuffed cabbage rolls was influenced by Hungarian-American cooks who call the dish Toltott kaposzta. In these kitchens, the rolls are placed over a layer of chopped cabbage and tomato puree is added.

BAKED STUFFED CABBAGE ROLLS

- 1 head (about 2¾ pounds) cabbage
- 1 pound ground chuck beef
- 1 cup cooked rice
- ¼ cup finely chopped onion
- 1 egg (slightly beaten)
- 1 teaspoon salt
- ¼ teaspoon pepper
- 1 can (10½ ounces) condensed tomato soup
- 1 can (1 pound) stewed tomatoes
- 2 tablespoons lemon juice
- 2 tablespoons dark brown sugar

Prepare cabbage leaves and chopped cabbage as directed below. Mix together the beef, rice, onion, egg, salt, pepper and 2 tablespoons of the soup. Divide the mixture (about ¼ cup for each) among the prepared leaves, placing a small roll of the meat in the center of each; roll up leaves envelope fashion; place seam-side down over prepared chopped cabbage. Mix together the remaining soup, stewed tomatoes, lemon juice and sugar; pour over rolls. Cover with foil and bake in a moderate (350 degrees) oven about 1½ hours; uncover and bake about 30 minutes longer. Makes six servings, two rolls per person.

To prepare cabbage: Cut out core about 1 inch down; cover cabbage with boiling water; boil about 10 minutes; drain. Remove 12 large outer leaves so they are whole; cut out any heavy rib at bottom of each; spread out on flat surface ready for filling. Shred remaining cabbage coarsely with a knife and spread over bottom of oven-glass baking dish (12 by 8 by 2 inches).

SENTIMENT WITH FASHION

San Rafael Improvement Club combined sentiment with fashions at its meeting yesterday. Above, at left, Mrs. Richard Hardin, club president, presented Miss Georgia Wintringham with a pearl and maple leaf brooch and an honorary membership, as a token of the club's appreciation for her civic work. Miss Wintringham, daughter of the late Mrs. Thomas Wintringham, a pioneer member of the club, has devoted her life to beautifying San Rafael streets. She served on the city's tree committee many years and because of her vigilance San Rafael's streets are shaded by trees. She is leaving San Rafael, where she was born, to live in Carmel Highlands. New members of the club were honored and presented with gifts by Mrs. Arlin Hargraves. At right young Susan Frank sang "The Easter Parade," as a prelude to the modeling of the new spring hats by club members. (Independent-Journal photos)

Greenwood-Pender Nuptials Held In Mill Valley Chapel

Edward F. Greenwood of San Rafael claimed Erma Jo Pender of San Francisco as his bride Saturday, in a ceremony performed in the chapel of the Mill Valley Community Church.

The double ring rites attended by relatives only were performed at 3 p.m. by the Rev. Gordon L. Foster.

The bride, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alsie William Pender of Castro Valley, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a street length two-piece sleeveless costume of ice blue crepe trimmed with beads.

Her sister, Jean Pender of Oakland, was attired in a dress of pale green crepe. Best man was Mario Del Chini of Fairfax.

After the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bridegroom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Greenwood of San Rafael. Afterward the couple left by car for a honeymoon in Palm Springs.

The bride was educated in East Bay schools. She has another sister, Mrs. Larry Hodge of Oakland, and a brother, Timothy Pender of Castro Valley.

The bridegroom was graduated from Marin Catholic High School, attended the College of Marin and California Polytechnic Institute. He served six months with the U.S. Air Force at Hamilton Air Force Base. He is employed in business with his father in San Francisco.

Greenbrae Woman Takes Honors In Dance Olympics

Mrs. Angelo Filipelli of Greenbrae took the first place trophy in the intermediate bronze division with a tango at the Arthur Murray Dance Olympics at the Cabana Hotel in Palo Alto recently.

She will demonstrate the winning dance at the March 16 dance of the Marin Cotillion, of which she and her husband are members.

Mill Valley AAUW Groups Will Hear Two Speakers

Both the Foods and Nutrition and Schools and Society Study Groups of the Mill Valley Branch of the American Assn. of University Women will meet tomorrow.

Miss Frances Dahl, Marin County nutritionist, will be speaker for the former group at the home of Mrs. Joseph C. Brewster at 10 a.m., and Edwin L. Blackmore will be speaker for the latter group in the home of Mrs. Lovell A. Napper at 8 p.m.

Blackmore, who is on the staff of the county superintendent of schools, is assistant secretary of the Marin County committee on school district organization. He will discuss the problems of school unification in Marin. His appearance before the group will mark the start of a series of discussions and study sessions on unification.

The group's work is being coordinated by Mrs. Frederick A. Zulch, branch elementary and secondary education chairman. She is assisted by co-chairmen Mrs. Joseph E. Bodovitz, social and economics issues chairman, and Mrs. Richard S. Newman, legislative program and status of women chairman.

Previous discussion and research has been done on education for "Culturally deprived children" and de facto segregation. One result of the latter study was the compilation of a current annotated bibliography in the field of race relations. Copies are available to those interested.

Mrs. Charles A. Smith, group coordinator for the foods and nutrition group, reports that the year's program for the group has been varied. A visit to the western regional research laboratory of the U. S. Dept. of Agriculture in Albany was followed by a review of the UNICEF program for improving nutrition in underdeveloped countries.

Members have also done some experimental cooking based on South American recipes.

MARIN'S SOCIAL WHIRL

Sausalito Couple Will Entertain At Big Party Tomorrow Night

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mr. and Mrs. John W. Davis of Sausalito are entertaining at a cocktail party and buffet dinner for 200 guests tomorrow night at The Trident in Sausalito. Because of the large number of guests Mr. and Mrs. Davis cannot hold the party in the penthouse of their own new apartment house on North Street in Sausalito. The penthouse occupies the entire top floor of the new building. It was opened for a tour in November. The living rooms are all in blue and white and furnished with many antiques.

Among the Marin guests at the cocktail party and dinner will be Dr. and Mrs. Paul Klein, Dr. and Mrs. Harold Rosenblum, Messrs. and Mesdames Walter Joseph, Mervyn Cowen, Jack Clumeck, Arnold Michaels and Charles Rosenbaum and Stanley Breyer.

THE RUDY LANGS have returned to their San Rafael home after a month's leisurely tour of Mexico. They flew to Mazatlan and took a plane from there to Puerto Vallarta and then flew to Guadalajara. After visiting there the Langs, with a car and driver went to Acapulco, seeing many places en route, and then boarded a plane for San Francisco.

MRS. ESTHER DEARTH, chairman of the Marin Visitors Bureau, and her husband, Keith, head the delegation which left today by chartered plane for the bureau's Holiday in Hawaii. Others from Marin on the holiday tour are Messrs. and Mesdames Herbert E. Enyeart, Julius Frnjak, Frank Healion, David Holstrom, Robert A. Lindskog, Robert Linscott, James Osborn, Eric J. Ring, D. J. Steele, Shaun Wiltshire, Mesdames Madeline Dalgeish, Henry Dulik, Marie Gazzano, Hilda Galbraith, Irma Grass, Laura Hunter, Anne Kari, Tillie Kovecik, T. E. Wall, C. R. Wiberg, Miss Maggi Gnau, Barb Gansmiller, Drew Gansmiller, Mark Linscott, Bruce Linscott, Jack O. Harris, Michael Wiltshire, Timothy Wiltshire and Henry Miller. They will make a 12-day tour of the paradise of the Pacific, and stay at the Princess Kaulilani in Honolulu, the Maui Hukulani on Maui, Waiaka Lodge on Kona and the Coco Palms in Kauai. The tour arrangements were made by Frank George of Redwood Travel Advisors.

A warm welcome is being given to new members of the Meadow Club. Among these are Dr. and Mrs. John C. Boettiner, who came from Philadelphia and live in San Rafael with their four children. Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shear, who also have four children. They live in Ross. Bob is vice president of the Bank of California. Nick and Judy Allen, whose parents have been Meadow Club members for many years. The Allens have taken out their own memberships.

Other new members are Messrs. and Mesdames J. V. Arata, W. G. Austin, Oscar E. Baan, Huntley Bennett, Ellis Berry, Dod Cockburn, Edward Garbarini, F. E. Glynn, Keith Grady, H. F. Hale, Joseph Ingrassia, Sue Jennett, Don Kelleher, R. J. Killen, Boyd Lang, Leonard Marconi, Dr. David Merten, J. L. Minutoli, J. E. Raskob Jr., John Robinson and Mrs. Carl Root.

The club is getting a fine reputation for its outstanding women golfers. One is Miss Melinda Magley, a school teacher, who spends her weekends on the club's course. Another of the young golfers is Sue Jennett.

A SURPRISE LUNCHEON was given recently for Mrs. James Gilmartin of San Rafael at Sabella's. The Gilmartins, who have a young adopted son, are now adopting a little girl and expect to have her home with them soon. Guests met first at the Corte Madera home of Mrs. James Baxter where Mrs. Gilmartin was showered with gifts. Among the guests were Mrs. Gilmartin's mother, Mrs. Frank Kelly, Mesdames William Barr, James Flagerman, Louis Magliulo, Robert Williams, Richard Nave, Jack McDonughy, Joseph Ferriter Jr. and Baxter.

YVES ST. LAURENT OFFERS—

Special Events To Spotlight YWCA Drive

A series of special events in Marin county will spotlight the YWCA's membership drive this month.

Inter-club council of Marin county's four YW-Wives clubs has invited the public to a special get-acquainted program tomorrow at 9:30 a.m. at Nave Lanes, 5800 Redwood Highway, Novato.

The program, "Secrets of Fashion Power for Your Wardrobe," will be presented by Mrs. John Faiola of Sausalito, a home economist.

Mrs. Faiola will show, not only how sewing can stretch dollars, but also how imaginative accessories, analysis of line, and use of color and textures can enhance appearance. She will demonstrate how to build a wardrobe on the good things already in the closet, how to select them, what to eliminate, and what to add.

The Novato YW-Wives will hold an Easter fashion show and luncheon at Nave Lanes March 13 at 1 p.m., featuring spring fashions.

A membership tea and program was sponsored by the Marin City YW-Wives club in the home of Mrs. E. J. Jefferson on Sunday.

Tamalpais YW-Wives club will hold an open house and coffee hour March 15, in Hammond Hall at the Episcopal Church of Our Savior in Mill Valley at 10 a.m. Mrs. Robert Eschen, club president, is chairman.

To Attend Show

Members of the Sausalito Woman's Club will attend a recording television session of the "Tennessee Ernie Ford" show at the KGO television studio in San Francisco on March 12. They will leave the clubhouse by bus at 11:45 p.m.

LUNCHEON WITH MISSION

Woman's Society of Christian Service members of the Tamalpais Valley Methodist Community Church met yesterday for luncheon at the home of Mrs. J. W. Morrison to lay plans for a "Faith In Life Mission." Mrs. Morrison is general chairman for the event scheduled for March 24-26. Special music is being arranged by Mrs. Sibyl Schneller and a committee composed of Mrs. Edward Smith, Valerie Meacham and Jack Martin. Sun's No Fun Beamed On Milk Says Solar Sleuth

RALEIGH, N. C. (UPI) — The milk you brought into the kitchen this morning probably was not the same milk left by the delivery man an hour or so earlier, reports the North Carolina Department of Conservation and Development.

If as much as half an hour elapsed, "nature's perfect food" was no longer perfect, the department said.

A very narrow band of light penetrated the container and began a chemical action that caused a change in taste and a loss of vitamins.

But sunlight, direct or indirect, is not the only cause of chemical deterioration in milk, the experts said. The profuse fluorescent lighting used in most grocers' dairy cases has a similar effect

Research is underway to determine what happened when the radiant energy hits the protein molecule of the milk.

Dr. L. W. Aurand, of the North Carolina State College Department of Food Sciences, says milk exposed to direct sunlight undergoes change of taste and loss of vitamin qualities within 30 minutes. Tests conducted elsewhere indicate four hours of exposure to fluorescent light will cause similar changes in the milk.

Sunny Hills Juniors Plan To Re-Establish Lunch Shows

Sunny Hills Junior Auxiliary will re-establish a tradition this spring when the members hold the first of two luncheon-fashion shows on March 13 at the Meadow Club. The second will be April 24.

The traditional "Around-the-World" luncheons, as they are known, were started in 1949 and given each spring until the last few years. They have been re-established because of the popularity of the event. A different country has always been used as a theme and this year "Flying High" will be the title with decorations in an Oriental vein.

Sherry will be served at 12:30 p.m. prior to the luncheon and the highlight of the afternoon will be a fashion show with Auxiliary members modeling. Overhead on the runway above the models' heads will be colorful paper kites to carry out the Japanese theme.

Models will be Mesdames Thomas Cagwin, John Dakin, Francis Di Grazia, Richard Kure, James Lill, Walter Meinberger, Leland Murphy, Vernon Morris, John O'Neill, John Rakow, Ralph Tierney, Leonard Weisenberg Jr., Donald Watts and John Willcutt. Chairman is Mrs. Samuel Crowell, assisted by Mesdames Robert Lashly, models; Jack Hunt Jr., decorations; William Carewe, waitresses; Ralph Tierney, announcements; and Donald Collins, awards.

Mrs. Vernon Norris of Ross is reservations chairman.

Remedial Reading Teacher Will Be Section's Speaker

Mrs. Cecelia F. Wagner, remedial reading teacher, will be the guest speaker for the Elementary and Secondary Education Section, Marin Branch, American Assn. of University Women, meeting March 13. The talk will be held at the home of Mrs. C. Roy Thompson of Lucas Valley, beginning at 10 a.m.

Mrs. Wagner, who will speak on the importance of teaching proper techniques in reading during the early years, has taught for 31 years at the University of San Francisco and San Francisco State College and has been a consultant for the San Rafael school system for two years.

Recent Controversy Over P-TA Goads Some Strong Defenses

"I'm boiling over, I am so mad," writes an irate lady. "What is your opinion of the recent controversy over the P-TA, Dr. Barbour?"

Whew! I'm overwhelmed by how strongly you ladies feel about the P-TA. You believe in what you're doing and don't mind saying so. I'm glad to be counted on your side, speaking from more than a dozen years' association with the P-TA. I have written on this subject many times, so my regular readers know that I think the P-TA is well nigh indispensable.

I have attended P-TA meetings in cities large and small, from one coast to the other. In every case I found the best people of the community there, working hard for their children. They accomplish many things. Safety committees, for example, work with police officers to provide traffic protection for children. Committees on handicapped children have been the spark plug for special programs for these youngsters. Comic books have been cleaned up through the efforts of the national P-TA. P-TAs round up facts and figures on needed child welfare laws; they see that this data gets into the hands of legislators. They don't play politics, but they are intensely partisan on the side of better schools, better teachers, healthier and safer children.

Of course the P-TA has faults. Sometimes the meetings are boring. It would be a remarkable program chairman who could provide a stimulating speaker to interest every member at every meeting. In mid-year, attendance falls off. Enthusiasm flags. There are cliques, hurt feelings, inefficiency, just as there are in every large organization. But its over-all virtues are tremendous.

I believe wholeheartedly in the P-TA.

Love And Attention Needed By Children With Problems

By DAVID NYDICK
UPI Education Specialist

Your child needs love and attention. Psychologists and educators indicate that there is a greater need for this affection in children with particular behavior problems.

Love and attention are not expressed by giving in to every demand of a child. The parent who spoils a child is not necessarily giving either. The young child should know that mother is sympathetic when he falls and hurts himself. He needs parents who show a genuine interest in his activities. He also wants his parents to say no when it should be said.

YOUR CHILD appreciates assistance. Be prepared to give support or guidance. Parents who participate with their children rather than direct them usually are welcome. Are you a parent who is rejected by a seemingly independent child? This may be true. On the other hand, take a look at your relationship. You may find that you are having difficulty because of your attitude. No one likes to feel incapable. Your assistance may be more readily accepted if you show confidence in your child while making suggestions. Allow him to perform.

AS YOUR CHILD grows older he becomes more capable. If you have developed a warm relationship during the early years, you will find it continuing. Naturally, attitudes and methods must grow up as does your child.

Regardless of your good judgment, you may find that a problem has developed. This type of problem may be the "class clown." This is the child who constantly seeks attention.

HE BECOMES a behavior problem to teachers because he makes wise cracks, funny faces, etc. at the wrong times. He does wrong things just to obtain attention. He seems to thrive on bawling outs. He likes to be laughed at. This is called negative behavior. The child can often be helped by guidance towards constructive activities. A simple example is the recognition a child may receive from his discussion of a favorite pet. He might display a model which he made. He might write an article for the school newspaper.

Pigs In Fat Research

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Fatties may not like it, but pigs are being used at Colorado State University College of Veterinary Medicine to simulate people, the U.S. Department of Agriculture reports.

Pigs were chosen in the fat research primarily because they become fat, like to lie around, eat everything on the menu and spontaneously develop atherosclerosis—excess fat clogging artery walls.

CHANGING PATTERNS

Moving Toward New Family Form, Says Margaret Mead

NEW YORK (UPI)—Today, it is the children who are most at home in the world. The adults have become the strangers and immigrants, says anthropologist Dr. Margaret Mead.

Once, she said, it was the grandparents who were the wisest. Then it was the parents reared within the present age who were most able to direct their children. Now, said Dr. Mead, the family needs "to be reorganized so that the adults can absorb the children's growing knowledge of the present age — of space, of satellites, of the new mathematics, of the oneness of this small planet called earth on which we live."

DR. MEAD WAS one of several participants in a conference on the future of the U.S. family—a conference sponsored by the Child Study Assn. of America. Dr. Mead, associate curator of ethnology at the American Museum of Natural History and adjunct professor of anthropology at Columbia University, said it is "not generally recognized that we are moving towards a new family form, a form that has not yet been named, a form that is not yet clear. But the conditions which underlie the emergence of this new form are clear enough."

SHE LISTED the conditions: —One: An accelerated rate of change so that not only may adolescents and parents expect to enter a changed world, but grandparents must also be prepared to live for many years in active relationship with a world that is constantly changing.

". . . Everywhere there is an urgent need for the older people who have changed successfully, have kept pace with the world, who can communicate a sense that something has or could be done."

—Two: ". . . the need for greater support for the young people who marry early and are attempting to bring up children under extremely difficult conditions."

". . . SOMETHING IS definitely needed to end the isolated, exposed position of two very young parents attempting to rear several children all by themselves with no one to advise and comfort, no one to take over in emergencies, no one to rely on in the small, day by day details of living.

"This need . . . is accentuated by the number of women who are working full or part-time and add a second responsibility . . . to the first which already is too much for them."

—Three: The third condition is the extent to which parents can no longer control the moral training of their children.

". . . THE PRESENT low standard of ethical behavior in the country, varying from officials of large companies to cheating college students, reflects the breakdown in the last 30 years of parents' ability to give their children clear ethical direction within a scene that was changing too rapidly.

"This inability has been reflected in the schools and in the pulpit. Moral counsel was either out of date, or uncertain, vacillating. Meanwhile, increasingly our children are being reared by the mass media."

DR. MEAD TOLD the conference there has been a change in the role experience plays in the family life.

"Now, it is the children who are most at home in the world, and the adults who are the strangers and immigrants," she said. "Fortunately . . . we have already been somewhat accustomed to learn from our children . . ."

GOP Must Point Difference Between Birch, Conservative

It seems to us that it's about time the Republican Party take steps to differentiate between such words as "conservative," "arch conservative" and "Bircher."

Up until now, the attitude of the party apparently has been "we're against labels, so we won't discuss the situation." But that's not good enough. In refusing to face it, the party leaders have allowed the situation to compound —and confound.

To begin with, we don't believe a member of the John Birch Society qualifies as a "conservative"—even as an "arch conservative." An organization which would sponsor as essay competition and tolerate billboards aimed at impeaching the chief justice of the United States Supreme Court because of his beliefs and decisions, is not conservative, it is extremely radical.

There is no legal way to impeach a supreme court justice for doing his duty as he sees it, providing he doesn't break the law itself. What the Birch Society is attempting is to change the Constitution itself by the force and violence of its recrimination campaign. This is radical action. It's only one illustration; there are others.

Unfortunately, the term "Bircher" has been cast around recklessly not only by Democrats, who see political advantage in equating the Birch Society and conservatism, but also by unthinking Republicans.

There's nothing wrong with being conservative. It's just as important to have conservatives as it is to have liberals. Neither should have unlimited control; both have their functions in our republican government.

California's Republican Party is conservative; it is far from being Birchish. We'd say it leans to the liberal conservative, rather than the extreme conservative. To prove that we'd point to some of its most successful voter-getters, like Sen. Thomas Kuchel and the Chief Justice himself, Earl Warren.

The victory of the extreme conservative, who welcomed Birch support, in the Young Republicans convention in Fresno appeared to us to be accomplished at the expense of a number of conservatives, Max Rafferty supporters and some others who seemed to vote farther right than they normally would.

The introduction of the Rafferty supporters has complicated the political situation. Many people, concerned about the schools, jumped into politics to help elect Rafferty state superintendent of schools.

Rafferty admittedly is not a partisan politician. He was dubbed a Republican because he is conservative in his school views and is a registered Republican. He actually is non-partisan, has had no experience and no knowledge of the Republican Party or how it works.

But his supporters, now entranced with politics after victory in their first tilt, are enthusiastic and confused. Once inside the Republican Party, they find the words conservative and liberal have entirely different meaning than they did before. Without a program of the names and numbers of the players, it will take them a good while to decide where on the team they want to play the game.

As we said, it looks to us as though the Republicans might well try to differentiate. We know they can't keep other people from getting the words all mixed up. But party leaders themselves can point the way to better identification, better acknowledgement of the segments of their party, better recognition of the part each plays in making a party successful.

The phrase "Oh, he's just a Bircher," isn't good enough any more.

It's April On The Hilltops

We have always known Spring came to the hilltops much earlier than to us lowlanders. But last week we visited friends high up on hillsides — and presto, Spring had come! Flowers were everywhere.

Of course, we should have known. Our hillside neighbors always have an abundance of citrus fruits which annually freeze among us heathen in the lower depths. Other tropical plants from Hawaii and similar warm climes thrive at a neighbor's home about 50 feet up our hill.

One of the delights of Marin is its immense variety of plants. What other place has winter and spring flowers blooming together?

Temperature inversion is a wonderful thing—for those who live up high.

Hollywood Stardom Has Its Price; For Glenn Ford, It's Broken Bones

NEW YORK (AP) — Hollywood stardom has its price.

The price for Glenn Ford has been broken bones. Perhaps no other durable star of his stature — he has made more than 100 pictures—has had his ribs snapped more often in the service of the cinema.

"I love Western roles," he said, "but over the years I've had a couple dozen bones broken in them. Somehow I never get hurt in anything but Westerns.

"A horse is the most dangerous animal there is."

Glenn could avoid equestrian perils by hiring a double. It is a point of pride with him that he never has.

"I like to do my own riding," he said. "I used to work as an exercise boy when I was 14 or 15 for Will Rogers. He sensed that I loved horses, and he taught me to ride by letting me warm up his polo ponies."

"I have no patience with actors who depend on doubles to perform dangerous feats. They cheat the audience," Ford said.

"I think if you can't do what the role calls for, then you ought to turn it down. If you're going to play the part of a man, then be a man."

FORD IS AN acknowledged master rider. The Rodeo Cowboys Assn. voted him the best horseman in pictures in 1959 and 1960, and he is prouder of this honor than any other he has ever won.

Glenn, who came to Santa Monica from Canada during his boyhood, started acting in high school. After some stage experience and two and one-half years in the Marines during World War II, he rose rapidly in the film world.

IN RECENT years he has been something of a perennial among the nation's 10 top-ranked stars at the box office. Unlike some stellar performers, Ford sees no danger in appearing in two or even three pictures a year.

"I don't believe you run the risk of overexposure if you have good material," he said. "If a good story comes along, I'm glad to make it."

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Jobless Oldster Needs Attention

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Now that the governor is plumping for reorganization, he might think about a Department of Social Responsibility. We have no tenure law in this state; we have automation in industry plus the old-people-getting the gate problem.

Neither the Southern Pacific nor any other corporation, well managed or otherwise, should be the sole battleground in working out these problems. They're a state responsibility and beyond that, federal.

Being thrown out of work is much closer to a U.S. citizen of 60 than the form of government in Cuba or Vietnam. It's closer to the grocer when his customer loses a job, and all down the line.

There's cynicism about our institutions—viz. the court action against S. P. employees —but none of our institutions are free and detached from the economic problem. The one institution that can spark solutions is active public interest.

Hamster's Death Senseless Sacrifice

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

The I-J reports that a hamster "has given his life to science."

The purpose of a recent high school experiment was to discover "the effect of alcohol on the learning of a hamster." The findings were:

When the hamster was sober he could run the maze; when drunk on whiskey, he could not.

The principal's comment upon the resultant death of the hamster was: "Tam's (the hamster's) death proved the effects of alcohol."

I do not see that this experiment is justified as bearing on science. The experiment strikes me as totally unnecessary and inhumane, a senseless sacrifice in the name of science.

Nursing Service Needs Funds

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

A few weeks ago I visited several senior citizens that were laid up at the Marin General Hospital and was very happy to learn that the treatment and service at the hospital is "out of this world."

It happened to be lunch time, and I had the pleasure of having a cup of coffee in the hospital cafeteria with Mr. Turner, the director of the hospital.

I mentioned to him, "It looks to me like the hospital is a very busy place," and he stated that they were not only filled up with patients, but they have over 100 on the waiting list.

I passed the remark, "Do you remember when some of the people in Marin County were fighting against the building of a new hospital?"

Since then I have visited several seniors who are sick at home. They told me, "God bless the Bedside Nursing Service." If it was not for their help these patients would probably be hospitalized or suffer at home without help. In one instance I was there when the nurse called to administer treatment to an elderly lady. I watched her smile and the tenderness and consideration she offered. This alone can make an elderly person feel better.

I talked to the nurse and asked whether she kept busy and her answer was that, due to financial circumstances, the service could not hire enough nurses to take care of the needs and that some applications had to be laid aside; to await an opportunity to get service, and some patients who should have daily care can only receive it two or three times a week.

I do not know, and did not want to ask, who is paying for this work. I know the service is in the same building with the County Health Department. If the county is the one who pays for the service, I am sure the county should look into this matter to get a bigger appropriation to accommodate those who need the service so badly. I am certain, too, that care in the home adequately provided would eliminate the possibility of having to place the patients in a hospital.

BENNETT CERF

The only time I saw the late William Faulkner flare up at a public reception was when a well-meaning hostess sought to add water to a slug of Faulkner's favorite brew. The distinguished author pulled his glass back sharply, and pointed out, "If the good Lord had intended water to be in it, madam, He'd have put it there!"

GRAVESTONE HUMOR:

In New Mexico: "Here lies Les Moore, killed by four slugs from a .55. No Les, No Moore."

In Paris: Wife: I Am Waiting for You. AD 1920. Husband: Here I Am. AD 1952.

In Waukeegan: Criminal Lawyer: The Defense Rests.

In Colorado: "He Called Coyote Pete a Liar!

Father Kinkell was trying to get his young son to do more physical exercise. "When I was your age," he pointed out, "I thought nothing of a stiff 25-mile hike." Young Kinkel nodded agreement, and said, "I don't think much of it either."

Grand Jury Report Suffers From Prejudice Of One Committee

Axiomatic it is that the whole is greater than any part; also that yesterday's newspaper best serves to wrap a fish.

A disproportionate part of the 1962 Grand Jury report seems so outdated and peevish as to threaten the whole with fishwrapper fate. It deserves better, since the major weakness lies in output of a single committee.

Committees though formally supported by the jury as a whole are bound to vary widely. On occasion they even can and do differ with the whole jury findings.

OF THE 1962 committees, that on county offices headed by investment broker Edgar T. Lindner was uniquely voluble yet vague, out-of-date and little documented, full of alarm and bile as it wandered amidst swampy vapors of innuendo.

Study of its various outpourings points to a conclusion that the primary key to its discontent lies in the unhappy, now long past, Stella Hughes case.

Miss Hughes, former assistant personnel director subordinate to Administrator Alan Bruce, was dismissed in October, 1961, on allegation of cause.

An appeal was filed. Detailed hearings before the Personnel Commission began in December. Transcript was reviewed by county supervisors as by law the final appeal body. The supervisors by majority vote upheld Bruce.

THAT NORMALLY would have been it. The board sat in this matter judicially, and one does not lightly impeach judges. Diligence and competence of these supervisors received special recognition from the 1962 full grand jury which, noting "long and arduous hours in the performance of their duties," recommended that they receive a 60 per cent pay increase from $500 to $800 monthly.

Yet in the matter of Miss Hughes, Lindner's committee recklessly stigmatized the dismissal as having "no justification or cause."

Elsewhere, moreover, this committee in effect declared that the supervisors don't know what goes on in county government. It described its interviews with unnamed county employees as invariably turning up charges of "low morale and lack of uniform personnel procedures." This, the committee convinced itself, was "an actual fact . . . of grave nature."

Yet on being advised about this alarming situation allegedly of common knowledge, "several" of the supervisors, reports the committee, expressed themselves as "amazed" and added: "We thought things were running smoothly with no problems."

EITHER THE COMMITTEE or the supervisors must have been off the old rocker. In fact the supervisors have always been conscious of problems and doing their best to solve them.

A revolt of several of the most important county department heads against personnel administration, in a period before this 1962 jury committee, had been among these. Reform action was vigorous once the bad year 1961 —in which the committee seems to have dwelt spiritually—was past.

The year 1962 saw two personnel advances. Uniformity of procedure never was a problem. But modernization was overdue and was brought about, first through agreement between Bruce and the Personnel Commission on what should be done, and next by supervisorial adoption of the reforms last fall.

OF THIS, as of the excellent work of able Bob Elliott as Miss Hughes' successor in bringing overdue harmony and efficiency into personnel affairs, the Lindner committee has not a word to say.

Nor does this or any other committee, frequently mentioning low pay, give due credit to the supervisors or Bruce for a long list of achievements in bringing Marin County levels toward standard. Ignored is Bruce's fully documented "inequity salary list" of June, 1961, approved by the supervisors in January, 1962, along with much else.

Most fantastic of all the committee attacks on Bruce was its well-publicized castigation of the administrator as (in effect) an unmitigated louse for making a routine annual offer of aid to the grand jury.

BRUCE'S HELP was actually used by other committees. Thanks were publicly accorded county counsel, the county clerk and others for assistance. All Bruce got was another accusation, that his office had "caused conflict" —this also unsupported, with facts pointing otherwise.

It is with possibilities of such slanderous irresponsibility in mind, I believe, that voters of the state last fall rejected a proposal which would have set up a true inquisition by grand jury. Subversion would have been determined by whim of by no means ideally qualified persons, swollen by a little brief authority. Marin County registered a particularly heavy "no" vote.

Next week I hope to write of much more constructive work by this grand jury.

U.S., Soviet Arms Reduction Not Imminent But Worth Trying For

WASHINGTON — Soviet foreign policy can only be judged by its actions, not by its words.

Nikita Khrushchev continues to use belligerent words. He waves his rockets and threatens their use, including a 100-megaton "burning bomb," but it is evident that Russia and the United States agree on one crucial objective: to avoid the mistake of nuclear war.

The reason Soviety policy must be judged by actions is that even though Premier Khrushchev has talked "peaceful co-existence" for several years, only a few months ago he embarked upon a massive, breathtaking risk of nuclear war. He did this by clandestinely placing missiles and bombers in Cuba.

FORTUNATELY HE failed. His response to a firm confrontation from the United States was to recoil from the Cuban undertaking. Perhaps this confrontation has finally persuaded the Kremliin that the United States is not "too liberal to fight" and that the Soviet state has too much to preserve to take such a risk again—in Cuba or in Berlin or elsewhere.

If this is true—and there is much to support it—then what next?

If a reliable nuclear stalemate has been reached and if the U.S.S.R. and the U.S.A. are intent upon avoiding nuclear self-punishment bordering on self-destruction, does this mean a better prospect of finding a way to relieve each other of the crushing, repressive burden of the arms race?

Can it be halted?

Can it be tamped down?

IN ALL REALISM, the answer is that the Soviet Union is showing no evidence whatsoever that it is interested in negotiating even an enforceable beginning toward disarmament, not even a nuclear test ban.

Khrushchev has again said that he will not accept more than three on-site inspections to verify whether an unexplained explosion is nature-made or nuclear-made. Apart from the danger to national security that inadequate inspection would be, a test-ban treaty that could not be reasonably policed would impair Soviet-U. S. relations rather than improve them because it would increase uncertainty.

But if Moscow is opposed to enough inspection to verify a test ban, there is no basis to expect it will accept the fuller inspection needed to verify the early stages of disarmament.

MOSCOW'S NEW rejection of any adequate test-ban inspection may not be its last word. The tremendous boon to both sides of a controlled, stage-by-stage arms reduction may sometime be sufficiently appealing to the Soviets to overcome their fear of an open society.

What couldn't the Soviet Union and the American economy do for their people if they could free themselves from even 20 to 30 per cent of unproductive arms expenditures! The outlook for even a beginning to that end is dim and distant, but the objective is so right that we ought to keep trying.

HOW TO PLAY

WINNING BRIDGE

By ALFRED SHEINWOLD

What's Use Of Making 'Proper' Play If You Lose Out In Game

I used to play tennis with people who would rather hit the ball "properly" than win the point.

The same kind of person, when he plays bridge, tries to make the "proper" play even if it's sure to lose.

Opening lead — ♠ J

West opened the jack of spades, and the finesse lost to East's king. Back came a spade to the ace.

"PROPER" PLAY

Declarer led a trump from dummy, East played low, and South put up the queen. This was the "proper" play, but it was sure to lose.

West took his two red aces, and East eventually won a trump trick with the jack to defeat the contract.

South's play was sure to lose because West surely had the ace of hearts.

WINNING PLAY

The winning play is to finesse with the nine of hearts on the first round of trumps.

Normally, this is a ridiculous play; but in this hand it is South's only chance.

South is sure to lose two trump tricks if West has the 10 or jack of hearts as well as the ace.

TRUMP LOSS

South can hold the trump loss to one trick if East has both the 10 and jack of hearts, and the way to do so is to finess with the nine of hearts.

As it happens, this deep finess drives out the ace of trumps. The trumps then break favorably, and South has no further problem.

When there's no other hope, be ready to make an unusual play—even a silly play.

You might just as well be hanged for a goat as a sheep.

Today is Wednesday, March 6 the 65th day of 1963 with 300 to follow.

The moon is approaching full phase. The morning stars are Venus and Mars. The evening star is Mars.

On this day in history:

In 1947 the Supreme Court upheld a lower court ruling that fined John L. Lewis and the United Mine Workers $710,000 for an illegal strike in 1946.

In 1962, a two-day storm began sweeping the Atlantic coast, killing at least 37 persons and causing damage estimated at more than 300 million dollars.

A thought for today—President James Monroe said: "National honor is national property of the highest value."

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

Oxygen Is Modern Miracle Maker In Treatment Of Stroke, Gangrene

VAN DELLEN

Oxygen is a modern miracle maker. A new technic of inhaling oxygen while sitting in a pressure chamber may revolutionize the treatment of stroke and gangrene from poor circulation. A larger amount of the dissolved gas finds its way into the blood stream and tissues when the atmospheric pressure is doubled, as is possible in a chamber of this type.

Obstruction in a blood vessel of a leg decreases the amount of oxygen to the tissues, which may lead to gangrene of the foot. When circulation to the brain is cut off by a clot in one of the arteries of the neck and head (stroke) the tissues suffer from oxygen deficiency. It may be possible in the future to spare these bloodless tissues by sitting or lying in a pressurized chamber that contains 100 per cent oxygen.

THE EFFECTS of a pressure chamber of this kind on victims of coronary thrombosis are being studied. Marked benefit has been noted in those with carbon monoxide poisoning. In this condition, carbon monoxide replaces oxygen in the blood and death occurs unless the situation is reversed. A pressure chamber containing 100 per cent oxygen is made to order for treating this emergency. In the circumstances, oxygen is forced into the blood to replace carbon monoxide.

The drawback is that the chamber is costly and must be large enough to accommodate many persons, to be of practical value. The administration of oxygen in this way differs from the usual method of sitting in bed in an ordinary room with a mask over the face or a tube in the nose.

THE OXYGEN tent is an alternate method and has the advantage of being air conditioned. Also available are portable devices for the physician's car, the ambulance, and for those who need oxygen when walking. The latter plan is used by those with emphysema; they carry a two-pound tank attached to a mask that allows them to exert without undue shortness of breath.

DR. VAN DELLEN will answer questions on medical topics if stamped self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

ITCHING BUMPS

M.T. writes: What is Fox disease and is there a cure?

REPLY

I assume you refer to Fox-Fordyce disease, in which tiny bumps appear in the armpits. The most distinguishing feature of this condition is the itching that develops as a result of emotional stimuli (anger, fear, and other forms of excitement), which may be so annoying the victim has an uncontrollable desire to scratch. This is a rare disorder—fortunately, because it is hard to cure.

LAXATIVE DAMAGE

J.D.W. writes: If a child eats a box of laxative pills, will this damage his brain?

REPLY

The brain? There are dozens of different laxatives and, to answer this question, the ingredients must be known.

NOTICE TO CONTRACTORS
(Advertisement)

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Novato Unified School District, Novato, Marin County, California, will receive bids for the furnishing of all labor, materials, transportation and services for the construction of the 1963 ADDITIONS TO NOVATO HIGH SCHOOL.

Each bid to be in accordance with the plans and specifications now on file with Rockwell and Banwell, 38 Hotaling Place, San Francisco 11, California, where same may be examined and copies obtained upon deposit of Twenty-Five Dollars ($25.00) per set, which deposit will be refunded upon the return of such copies in good condition within five (5) days after the bids are opened.

Each bid shall be made on a form to be obtained at the office of the Architect, and must be accompanied by a certified or cashier's check or bid bond in the amount of 10% of the bid amount, made payable to the order of the Novato Unified School District. Bids must be sealed and filed with the Clerk of the Governing Board of the Novato Unified School District, whose address is 1015 Seventh Street, Novato, California, on or before 4:00 P.M., March 19, 1963, at which time they will be publicly opened and declared in the office of the Board.

The above mentioned check or bond shall be given as a guarantee that the bidder will enter into a contract if awarded the work and will be declared forfeited if the successful bidder refuses to enter into said contract or to furnish the necessary bonds after being requested to do so by the Governing Board of the Novato Unified School District.

The successful bidder will be required to furnish a labor and material bond in an amount equal to 50% of the contract price and a faithful performance bond in an amount equal to 100% of the contract price, said bonds to be secured from a surety company satisfactory to the Governing Board of the Novato Unified School District.

Bidders are hereby notified that pursuant to the Statutes of the State of California, or local law thereto applicable, the Governing Board of the Novato Unified School District has ascertained the general prevailing rate of per diem wages and rates for legal holidays and overtime work in the locality in which this work is to be performed for each craft or type of workman or mechanic needed to execute the contract, which will be awarded the successful bidder.

The prevailing rates so determined are as follows:

NOTICE OF TRUSTEE'S SALE

On Monday the 25th day of March, 1963, at 11 A.M., in San Rafael, California, on the steps of the main entrance of the Marin County Courthouse, CASSIDY MORTGAGE COMPANY, a California corporation, as trustee, will sell at public auction, to the highest bidder for cash, in lawful money of the United States, all payable at the time of sale, all its right, title and interest acquired by or through the deed of trust hereinafter described, in and to the following described real property, situated in the County of Marin, State of California.

PARCEL ONE:

BEGINNING at a point on the Southwesterly line of that certain parcel of land conveyed by John J. Connell to Vernon A. Paris, et al, by Deed recorded November 3, 1954, in Liber 899 of Official Records, at Page 182, Marin County Records, distant thereon North 82° 45' West 56 feet from the Southeasterly corner of said parcel; running thence from said point of beginning along said Southwesterly line North 82° 45' West 177.54 feet to the Southwesterly corner thereof; running thence along the Northwesterly line of the parcel so conveyed to Paris, et al, North 7° 15' East 266.60 feet to the Northwesterly corner thereof; running thence along the center line of a 40 foot roadway easement South 58° 41' East 13.86 feet; thence on a curve to the left whose radius is 200 feet a distance of 85.06 feet; thence South 83° 03' East 84 feet; thence leaving said last named line and running South 34° 22' West 128 feet and running thence Southeasterly in a direct line to the point of beginning.

PARCEL TWO:

A Right of Way for road purposes over and across an existing road 40 feet wide, leading from the Northeasterly corner of the above described Parcel One to the County Road.

Said sale will be made without covenant or warranty regarding title, possession or encumbrances, to satisfy the obligation secured by and pursuant to the power of sale conferred in a certain deed of trust executed by JOSEPH TRAVIS and CHRISTINE A. TRAVIS, his wife, to CASSIDY MORTGAGE COMPANY, a California corporation as trustee, for the benefit and security of PETER J. KARBER, dated August 13, 1962, and recorded August 17, 1962, in Liber 1602 of Official Records, at Page 438, in the office of the Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California. The beneficial interest in said deed of trust has been assigned to VIOLET LEE, dated December 3, 1962, and recorded on December 13, 1962, Book 1640, Page 51, of Official Records, Serial No. 44590, in the office of the Recorder of the County of Marin, State of California.

Notice of breach of said obligation and election to sell said real property was recorded in the office of said County Recorder on November 23, 1962. This notice is given in compliance with the demand of the beneficiary this day made Four bedrooms, 3 baths, dining room, large kitchen with breakfast area, den and family room; workshop, tool shed. The charm of a New England farm house, remodeled for California living.

COUNTRY CLUB HEIGHTS $49,500
An acre — with a country field, huge trees, enclosed play yard, exciting landscape design, completely enclosed play decks, view over hills and bay. Interesting contemporary house design, unusual, livable, attractive. Four bedrooms, 3 baths, large family room, efficient kitchen, large utility room (could be a den); readily expandable.

BELVEDERE $62,500
There's a fabulous marine view from this interesting old home. Four bedrooms, plus a study, glass-enclosed porch, used as a family room; full formal dining room, huge kitchen, large pantry, 4 baths, lots of storage areas. Spacious deck.

BELVEDERE $69,500
Wonderful lagoon home, perfect for comfortable family living. Four bedrooms, 3 baths; the fourth bedroom and third bath comprise a completely separate suite, with used brick fireplace, dressing room, two private entrances to secluded patio and to the waterside terrace. Huge dining room, with windows out to the lagoon. Electric kitchen, roomy master bedroom suite, dock, good landscaping, studio, windowed study-hall. Over-sized lot. Exclusive.

FIVE BEDROOMS:

SAN ANSELMO $62,750
Brand new home, with so many rooms, it's hard to count them! Five bedrooms, 3 baths, dining room, family room with wet bar, fireplace; huge playroom; utility - sewing room. Exceptionally well - built, sliding glass doors from every bedroom to the deck, or garden. A beautiful acre of land, with wonderful view over hills and trees. Oaks edge the large level terrace and shade the entrance. Rock walls retain planting areas. Exclusive.

PALM HILL $65,000
In addition to five bedrooms, there's a study, huge dining room, 30' living room, pantry; the guest suite has a separate entrance. Large swimming pool, an acre of well-landscaped grounds, and a wonderful view. Five baths, workshop, attractive barbecue patio.

FAIRFAX $82,500
Rugged home, spacious, heavy timbered. Five bedrooms, 3 baths, plus separate servants' quarters. Gracious living room with cathedral beamed ceiling; marvelous electric kitchen, glass cabinets, every built-in. Family room, two wet bars. Big shade trees, an acre of land, privacy; adjoins water district property, with miles of riding trails. Exclusive.

BELVEDERE $97,000
One of the finest homes anywhere. Beautifully designed grounds and home, by top architects; unusual details, quality appointments. Spectacular view over Belvedere and the lagoon, the bay, across to the San Francisco skyline. 5 bedrooms, 3 baths, study, dining room, electric kitchen, family room, concealed bar and hi-fi in the paneled living room. Huge spreading oak shades the beautiful entrance garden.

School Building Evaluations Asked

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state fire marshal's office said it received requests to evaluate 1,183 school buildings last year.

The office, which evaluates fire, panic and life safety requirements, said 251 preliminary plans were reviewed during the design stages.

The estimated cost of construction of the 1,183 buildings was 574 million dollars, the office said.

Terra Linda Swim Pool Rates Due Discussion

Terra Linda Recreation District directors will discuss the district's financial status and possible changes in the swimming pool rates for the coming season tonight at 8 o'clock in the Terra Linda Community Center.

Rates for use of the pool last year, the pool's opening season, were $25 for a family and $10 for an individual. Use of the pool is restricted to residents in the district. The pool will be open this year from May 1 to Sept. 30.

TO OPEN FESTIVAL — The Alma Trio will be featured in the first concert of the Dominican College Schubert Festival Sunday night in Angelico Hall. Trio members are (from left) Andor Toth, Adolph Baller, and Gabor Rejto.

Marian Visitors Classes Set At St. Patrick's

Three Thursday morning classes for Marian Visitors in Marin County will open at 11 a.m. tomorrow at St. Patrick's Catholic Parish Hall,, Larkspur, with Msgr. John McGarr, pastor of St. Anselm's, speaking on the spiritual needs of the aging.

Marian Visitors is sponsored by the Catholic Committee for the Aging. It aids pastors in visiting persons who are sick at home or in hospitals.

Margaret Hoff, director of nursing for the Marin County Health Department, will speak March 14, and Annie Jameson of the Associated Catholic Church Women will speak March 21.

Private Investigator Exams This Month

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Examinations will be held this month for 58 persons who have applied for state private investigator licenses.

The examinations will be held here and in Los Angeles, the Bureau of Private Investigators and Adjusters said.

Alma Trio Will Open Festival Of Schubert

The Alma Trio will open the Dominican College Shubert Festival on Sunday at 8:30 p.m. in Angelico Hall on the college campus in San Rafael.

Composing the program will be two essentially different works: the Trio in E Flat (Op. 100) and Trio in B Flat (Op. 99).

Organized 11 years ago at the Alma estate of Yehudi Menuhin in the Santa Cruz Mountains, the Trio has an international reputation among lovers of the finest in chamber music.

Pianist Adolph Baller has become widely known in the United States through his recitals and orchestra appearances. He is head of the piano department at the San Francisco Conservatory of Music and is a member of the music faulty at Dominica nCollege.

Cellist Gaber Rejto has been head of the ceilo and chamber music departments of the Eastman School of Music and now heads the string department of the University of Southern California.

Violinist Andor Toth, a graduate of the Juilliard School of Music, has established himself as one of America's foremost concert artists. He is on the music faculty at University of Colorado.

Tickets will be available at the door. They may also be purchased at Hoy's in San Rafael and San Anselmo and at Guzman Hall, Dominican College.

Doherty Drive Plan Due Larkspur Council

Progress in long discussions over the proposal to extend Doherty Drive to Lucky Drive and Highway 101 will be reported to the Larkspur City Council meeting in city hall at 8 p.m. today, city manager Ronold E. Piper announced.

The extension would involve deeding of land from Tamalpais High School District property and from developer Niels Schultz Jr. The council voted 3-1 on Feb. 6 to extend the street within the next five years.

Chamber Set Budget In Novato

The Novato Chamber of Commerce approved a budget of $20,000 at a meeting Monday night at Nave Lanes. Last year's budget was $14,000.

All Miller and Glenn Johnson, membership committee heads, announced 15 new members had been added to the chamber rolls during February.

Col. William S. Harrell, Col. Lloyd Larson and Lt. Col. L. J. Churchville of Hamilton Air Force Base were appointed to the military affairs committee.

Novato merchants will give gifts to the "flight crew chief of the month" at Hamilton, it was announced.

A survey will be made to decide whether Novato merchants should close their stores on Washington's Birthday. This year. Novato stores were closed and other towns in the area had "big sale" days.

City-wide Silver Dollar Days was set for March 14, 15 and 16, and "Crazy Daze" for May 16, 17 and 18.

President Wayne Womack appointed Gordon Adams, John Novak, Richard Gronberg, Paul Terry, William Berry and William Evensen to a committee to review salaries of chamber employees.

County Airport Due Discussion

A panel of Marinites close to the subject will discuss the proposed county airport near Hamilton Air Force Base tomorrow on radio KTIM's "Sounding Board" program at 9 a.m.

Panelists will be Carrol R. Snyker, executive director of the Marin Development Foundation and members of the Marin County Airport Advisory Committee; Donald Frost, county public works director; D. M. Christensen, private plane owner and pilot, and Paul Kent. Both Christensen and Kent are on the airport committee.

The program, moderated by Kitty Oppenheimer, will be repeated from tape on Sunday. Listeners may send in questions for the panel.

Time Eligible Vets To File Exemptions

By ALTON S. BOCK
(First of two articles)

If you're a veteran, it's time to file a claim for a veterans' property tax exemption with the Marin County Assessor—provided you are eligible.

Eligibility is, superficially, a simple matter. But, as in filing income tax returns, oversights can get you into trouble.

This was made clear by the 1962 Marin County Grand Jury. widely publicized investigations of the jury revealed that some veterans, by not reporting all of their assets, obtained exemptions illegally.

In its final report, the jury asked that future grand juries continue the audit of "at least 100 borderline cases" of exemption claims each year.

On the basis of grand jury investigations, Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) has proposed a bill that would make mandatory annual checks by all grand juries.

If assets are not fully disclosed on the exemption claims, the grand jury may request prosecution by the district attorney.

County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel, however, emphasizes that no potentially eligible veteran should be afraid of applying for his exemption.

"Nobody is going to be considered a criminal just because his claim is rejected," Broemmel says. "As long as all property is listed, there is no problem, regardless of final determination of eligibility."

To help veterans file claims properly, Broemmel has provided this information:

General basis for the exemption:

California law provides that property to the amount of $1,000 of every resident who is a war veteran shall be exempt from taxation provided such resident owns property valued at $5,000 or less. (Special provisions are made for exemptions for paraplegic veterans.)

When to file:

Between the first Monday in March and the first Monday in May of each year. The Marin County Assessor's office will be open until 9 p.m. on Thursdays and Fridays for the next four weeks in addition to regular hours—8 a.m. to 5 p.m. Monday through Wednesday.

However, property statements to accompany claims are required before April 1, and the assessor asks that claims be filed before that date.

Who may file:

1. Residence requirement—Applicant must be a legal resident of California. Residence is determined by voter registration, mailing address, where income tax return is filed or automobile registration.

If a veteran is granted an exemption in another state, he cannot claim an exemption in California.

2. Service requirement—Applicant must show proof of honorable discharge or release from active duty with the armed forces of the United States, showing service in time of war or during a campaign or expedition. So-called peacetime soldiers or reservists who have not served in time of war are not eligible.

An applicant now in the armed forces may file if he or she is a veteran of war. If stationed outside California, such applicant may file through a relative or authorized agent. The widow or widowed mother of a veteran may file. Residents of California who are fathers, mothers or widows of veterans, and are receiving government pensions, may file.

Where to file:

All applications must be filed with the Marin County Assessor at the Civic Center if the applicant resides in Marin and desires an exemption on property anywhere in the state.

Those who have not previously filed should appear in person at the assessor's office with documents establishing service and residence. Veterans who were granted an exemption last year have been sent application forms which may be returned by mail.

(Tomorrow: How property is listed to determine financial eligibility.)

New Yacht Brokers

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Six persons passed their examinations for licenses as yacht and ship brokers or salesmen in January, the Yacht and Ship Brokers Commission said. Two others failed.
